CLINICIAN: Obbie Schlom-Hefner is coming back to Ohio to share with us her training methods. Obbie has the ability to work across disciplines from trail riders, cow sorters, ranch class competitors and dressage riders. She is able to evaluate horse and rider alike and can provide skills to help you advance. Obbie has been busy with training horses, ranching, rodeoing and competing. She was recently named the high point qualifier for the Ranching Heritage Series 4-year-old Open division.

The historic traditions of California horsemen built the core of Obbie’s training style and method. Obbie has been involved with horses most of her life and has a natural ability to read them. She has participated in the Mustang Challenge in 2012 with two horses winning both Champion and Reserve Champion. She also participated in Road to the Horse in 2013 capturing the hearts of those that were lucky enough to be in the crowd to see her. Obbie brings a young and fresh approach to horsemanship and has a wonderful ability to share that with others through her clinics. Obbie has learned a lot from her work with Nick Dowers and Al Dunning and is excited to share her program with us. We are really looking forward to the clinic this year and Obbie is excited about coming back! Learn more about Obbie at www.ObbieSchlom.com.
