Greetings from the Editor

Personally for me it has been a crazy month of July and I have no clue where the month went!

Niki on Raina

The NODA recognized show went well and I really enjoyed seeing so many of you and getting to put faces to names. Speaking of names...I only had one nightmare the night before the show that I couldn't talk and had marbles in my mouth. I woke up at 2:45 am in a sweat all panicked but soon realized it was just a bad dream. I had a hard time getting back to sleep after that and Skye of course was in the next bed sound asleep and clueless of any problems going on in my half of the room.

Robyn and John Ambrose of Grand Haven Stables were gracious hosts and overall the weather was nice. I would have liked warmer sunny skies but for those that were showing overcast skies and upper 60s was perfect showing weather.

This month's issue has a lot of show results and notice on page 21 the details of the upcoming NODA clinic with Jan Ebling, which should be a great event!

The Online Outdoor Mecca

By: Clara Etzel

Recently, when I was searching for new breeches online, I came across a new and fabulous website that I have to share with all my fellow NODA members but especially the Young Riders. I stumbled upon the website www.sierratradingpost.com when I googled "Schumacher breeches". Now I found both full seat as well as knee patch breeches for women and men and the prices for these breeches were ridiculous...I'm talking under $50.00 for a pair of new Schumacher breeches.

Now, since then the supply of breeches has drastically shrunk with limited sizes and colors left, but I encourage each NODA member to search this website because it has clothing, shoes and accessories for all seasons and all activity levels. I found brands like Ariat, Columbia, The North Face, and Patagonia. The prices are 30-70% off typical retail and the website frequently runs additional 20% or 30% off sales!

While Sierra Trading Post is not a tack shop and does not focus on horse riding apparel, there are many exciting clothes available for purchase that fit various year round riding or barn needs. The website also has an extensive casual clothing, shoes, and apparel selection (I mean thousands of items). Therefore, I implore each NODA member out there to get to your computer as swiftly as possible and check out this website...I guarantee that you will find many items in your online shopping basket that you must take home, at a steal might I add. :)

A monthly review of what's new in equestrian apparel and equipment.

Herm Sprenger Bow Balance Stirrups

"The latest advance in stirrup iron technology! This new design ensures improved leg position, providing better balance and greater comfort for the rider. A widened pad achieves shock-absorbing grip with two types of rubber density. By pivoting in four directions, impact on the cartilage and ligaments is softened, without a feeling of instability" (from doversaddlery.com).

Herm Sprenger has been around for ages. Their reputation has made them the standard in the world of dressage. Their latest creation is the bow balance stirrup. The ergonomic design of the iron itself allows the foot to rest in a natural and comfortable position, which in turn, helps reduce knee, hip, and back pain.

The stirrups feature Sprenger's familiar jointed design, pivoting in four directions to help keep your joints healthy, as well as heels down! Sizing of these stirrups are standard, the 4¾-inch size is suitable for most, to allow some extra room for the space taken up by the rubber covering the sides. I noticed a difference right away when riding in the bow balance stirrups. The stirrups flex with your movement, but not in a way that makes the rider insecure. The way the top construction is curved also aids in the recovery of a lost stirrup. The stirrups are designed for each foot, and are labeled "R" and "L".

Prices range from $200-$220. The Bow Balance Stirrups from Herm Sprenger are worth their cost, for comfort, design and craftsmanship, as well as the confidence in buying from a name that is trusted by dressage riders throughout the world.

Volunteers are the lifeblood of any horse show and we had MANY - thanks to the hard work of our Volunteer Coordinator, Karen Eisenhauer. NODA thanks all the volunteers who donated their time to contribute to our successful show weekend. It is very true that the shows could not and would not happen without you! The NODA T-shirts provided to each volunteer were vibrant and fun.

Silent Auction Huge Success

Rosemary Rufo, Silent Auction Chairman, wishes to thank each and every volunteer who sourced auction donations and worked at the Silent Auction Booth. She said, "The success of the auction is due to all the hard-working volunteers. Thank you everyone!"

NODA NOMINATING COMMITTEE IS ACCEPTING NOMINATIONS FOR 2010 OFFICERS

GET INVOLVED IN NODA! SUPPORT YOUR CLUB!

Contribute your time and talents. NODA is only as strong as our members! There are various openings available NOW for interested members including 2010 Officers: President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer (see below). Currently we have Officers and Board members are performing 2 or more important jobs - and of course, the optimum is only 1 job per member! Become involved, help your club!

The President presides at Board Meetings and appoints and coordinates the various NODA committees. Nominees for President must have served the Board at some time, in some capacity, thereby gaining a working knowledge of the many committees that keep NODA functioning.

The Vice President will assist the President and take over in the Presidents absence. The Vice President will also be the Chairman of the Recognized Show and will act as the liaison between the hired Show Manager, the Show Secretary and the Board.

The Secretary shall regularly attend all Board Meetings and record minutes of all proceedings. These minutes must be sent to all Board members as soon as possible, with ample notification of the next meeting.

The Treasurer must keep complete records of all Association finances; oversee accounts, investments and tax records. Nominees must have a working knowledge of keeping financial records and tax preparations for non-profit organizations.

Nominations may be given to Gail Patton, Parliamentarian, until the open meeting in October. Final nominations may be made from the floor at the meeting, after which all nominations will be closed.

Mail or call:

Gail Patton
5256 Spencer Rd.
Lyndhurst, Ohio 44124
440-442-5256

Individuals who are nominated must have agreed to hold office if elected and must be NODA members in good standing

Charles de Kunffy – Horsing Harmony!

By Regina M. Sacha-Ujcz

It was a pleasure to host the esteemed dressage master, Charles de Kunffy at Topline Stables at Walden this past month. Clinic participants and spectators alike were treated to his eloquence, wisdom and humorous delivery of classical dressage principles! His love for the horse is pervasive in every utterance resulting in amazing harmony between horse and rider. Mr. de Kunffy's work is appreciated for its scholastic depth, academic expertise, clarity and vigor of delivery!

All horse and riders were touched in a special way by his teaching and reveled in the basic principles of use of the abdominal grid, arms close to the body and use of the arms and torso as a unit. Charles' focus upon the "seat" to influence and soften the horse was refreshing. His emphasis upon proper equitation and lungeing was enlightening. The participants enjoyed a session of lungeing as well as private instruction and group lecture. "The horse always tells on the rider" and it was clearly evident as dramatic improvement ensued with each situation. Charles is a gift to the dressage world. To learn more about Charles de Kunffy, his books and teaching videos visit his website at CharlesdeKunffy.com.

Mr. de Kunffy is scheduled to return to Topline Stables at Walden in Aurora, OH in October, 2009. For more details, visit Topline-Stables.com.

Mr. Charles de Kunffy's equestrian credentials and reputation are as difficult to abbreviate as they are to duplicate. Charles de Kunffy is a much-appreciated clinician, sought after dressage judge, author of several books, many articles, and introductions to the writing of others. He was born and raised in Hungary as a member of the nobility whose parents were eminent horse breeders with derby winning racehorses. Mr. de Kunffy started riding as a child, always under expert supervision and instruction. His riding masters were educated during the golden age of equitation 1900-1945. Cross-country riding, jumping and dressage were melded into one comprehensive riding theory and methodology. Mr. de Kunffy was schooled with the strictest adherence to classical training traditions based on scholarship and a profound respect for the horse.

Janeen Langowski and Charles de Kunffy

Charles de Kunffy is a one-of-a kind dressage master - come and learn from the best!
