Niki & Raina

I hope everyone has been enjoying their summer. For me it seems to be flying by! Working on the newsletter I am always a month ahead so even though it is July, the August issue of the NODA News is finished and I'm already starting to work on the September issue and have the cover photo for the October issue already in place. We have received some nice compliments about the electronic version of the newsletter. I especially like on the calendar how one can click a link and view a show bill, entry form or other information associated with the event. I have to thank our wonderful webmaster – Linda Cooley – for all the great information she puts on the website calendar – the source for the links in the newsletter calendar.

Technology and hyperlinks are nice but I have to remind our members that place classified ads to be aware of spammers and scams that may happen when your email address is posted on the worldwide web. If you should ever receive a suspicious email about something you are selling make sure it is legit. Most likely emails from foreign countries willing to buy your saddle for more than you are asking are scams. I don't know how people have the time or conscience to pull scams or other illegal activity but unfortunately these things do happen.

We are about half way through the shows that NODA sponsors so if you are interested in applying for any year end awards remember you need to earn 4 NODA Bucks prior to applying for your awards. NODA always has plenty of volunteer positions at shows that need filled or you can always write an article for the NODA News if you can't make it to a show to volunteer. It is all of our wonderful volunteers that help make NODA what it is and there are always so

Letter from the Editor

Dear NODA
Members,

many nice people to meet.

Speaking of nice people, some of you may know junior member Stephanie Kiroff. Well I have to give her a very special THANK YOU for she is such a nice and generous young lady. I was at a horse show last weekend and my horse Raina was just not herself. Those of you that have seen me with Raina at shows know she is very laid back and frequent comments I get on my tests are "more impulsion" or "more energy." Since Raina is normally so carefree and laid back I told the owner/trainer at the farm I board at the she was more than welcome to use Raina for a lead line class at the show.

Well Sunday Raina finally decided to listen to previous comments and came out of the trailer a fire breathing dragon. It was very obvious that Raina wasn't going to be able to do a lead line class that day. So now we have a very upset seven year old at her first horse show crying and upset she can't ride Raina, a horse that has gone temporarily insane, and me feeling horrible about the situation. I ran back to the stalls to put the dragon in a cage and fellow NODA member Stephanie Kiroff was there with her horse. She very graciously leant me her horse Faith for the lead line class, which was so very nice of her and really made a little girl's day.

Other than Raina's energy explosion she is doing well as is Coco. Several months ago I moved them to a new facility, Dream on Farm in Columbia Station, which I really love, as do Raina and Coco. Raina has her own herd of geldings to boss around and is in love with an Oldenburg/spotted draft cross—Baxter. They are like Lady and the Tramp from the Disney movie, eating the same blades of grass together. In a future issue I'll have to update you on the comical adventure of Coco, who is growing up sp fast!

Enjoy the warm weather,
Niki Sackman NODA Editor

SHOW NEWS FROM CHRIS LEJA GOODALL, "New" Schooling Show Manager

Early in the morning on Sunday July 11th the forecast was clear. It looked like a beautiful day was shaping up for the NODA schooling show at Grand Haven. The morning ran smoothly and all were preparing to watch John Claridge's Century Ride after lunch. John's ride, recognized by the Dressage Foundation, means that his age and that of his horse, Tic Toc, add up to 100! We can all look forward to this achievement. As John's ride was finishing up a few ominous clouds started to roll in.

The storm appeared to be passing by, but numerous lightening strikes nearby forced us to put a temporary HOLD on the show. Further examination of the radar showed that the storm was heading north and all that was left to pass was an insignificant green blip. Twenty minutes and a few rain sprinkles later the show got back underway.

Four rides back into things and the "insignificant blip" had turned into another thunderstorm, this one right over the arenas. With the show on temporary HOLD again, everyone took shelter as it started to rain. The wind picked up and pretty soon trash cans were overturned, and chairs flew across the warm-up ring. After watching a trash can lid swirling around the arena I looked up and realized that I could no longer see the concession stand less than 300 feet away. The storm passed quickly, leaving up-turned arena letters and numerous wet car interiors in its wake.

As we got back underway the sun came out, giving new meaning to the phrase "if you don't like the weather in Northeast Ohio, wait ten minutes." Thank you to all the competitors who were patient, flexible, and timely when mother nature was uncooperative. Thank you also to the judges and scribes all of whom were thoroughly wet by the time it was over. Thank you to Robyn and John Ambrose of Grand Haven for their help and the use of their facility.

Finally, thank you to all the volunteers () who stayed late and got their feet wet to get everything back on track!

Final Results of the Volunteer T-Shirt Art Contest

Winner: Rachel Jelen

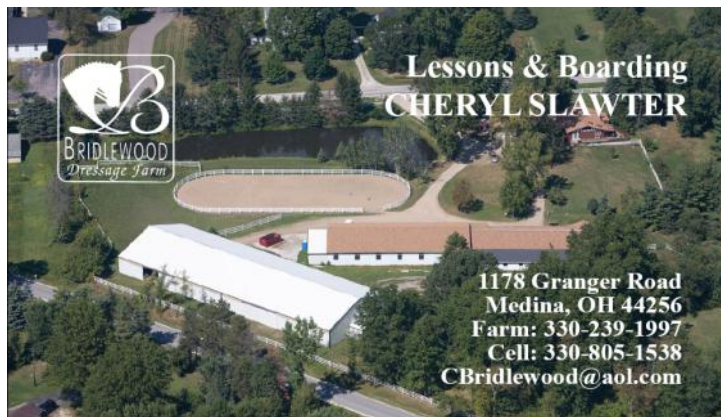

Art by Rachel Jelen

The NODA Board of Directors and Recognized Show Committee are very pleased to report that our first annual t-shirt artwork contest was a resounding success! We would like to extend our thanks to everyone who submitted design entries for our Dressage 2010/Encore volunteer t-shirts. There were so many awesome entries that it was extremely difficult to select a winner. What a great opportunity to showcase the talents of our members beyond riding!

A special acknowledgement goes to our winner, Rachel Jelen. Congratulations, Rachel for the beautiful design you submitted that will be featured on the volunteer shirts for this year's show.

This contest was so successful that it is planned for next year, so we'd like to encourage everyone to start thinking ahead for Dressage 2011. In fact, any non-winning 2010 entries can be resubmitted for 2011!

Once again, thank you all for your participation in the first annual t-shirt contest!

South Farm Summer Horse Trial

By: Sharon Coon

Several NODA members were among more than 180 eventing competitors at South Farm's Summer Horse Trial over the 4th of July weekend. The 16th annual event, hosted by Sarah Greer and Chris Gable, the farm's largest recognized competition ever, drew riders from Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Indiana. The large number of entries resulted in two preliminary divisions, three divisions of training, three novice sections, and one each of beginner novice horse, beginner novice rider, and starter. Sponsors of the South Farm Summer Horse Trial included The Paddock Saddlery, Big Dee's Tack and Vet Supplies and media sponsor, The Middlefield Post.

As the cool breezes that had graced our area and made for a week of marathon hay-making in the heart of Geauga County's Amish country moved out and the heat wave moved in, the dressage phase kicked off the competition on Saturday, July 3, with judges Sue Smithson (North Carolina), who also served as president of the ground jury; Sue Hughes (Michigan) and Gale D'Amanda-Fox (New York). Cindy DePorter from North Carolina served as Technical Delegate.

Next, competitors moved on to the exciting cross country phase across South Farm's beautiful fields and woods. The cross country course, designed by John Williams, ranged from 27 jumping efforts in the preliminary division (wheeled at 3025 meters at 520 meters per minute, with an optimum time of 5:49 and time limit of 11:38), to 10 jumping efforts for the starter division (1140 meters at 280 meters per minute, with an optimum time of 4:08 and time limit of 10:18). Obstacles, of course varying by level, included ditches, banks and water, along with tables, coops, log cabins, a park bench and an ominous sounding shark's tooth. The course was constructed by Jump It Excavating and Equestrian Surfaces of Middlefield.

Commenting on the event, TD Cindy DePorter said "Sara and Chris and all the great volunteers take the time and the care to make this the type of competition that you want to come to because of that attention to the detail. The courses are always beautifully prepared and they are always interesting and appropriate to the level. South Farm is one of those events that is extremely rider friendly, it is low key yet you know you will get a great competition and you know that the courses will help educate you and your horse. I had been away a couple of years and I loved the course changes this year. Everything was open and galloped just the way that you want the courses to be," DePorter said.

By the time Sunday rolled around for the final round of this triathlon of equestrian sports, the heat was sweltering and hunt coats were optional for the stadium round. The course proved to be equally challenging for competitors in all divisions, with a total of 86 starters posting rounds without jumping faults. But, a pretty similar number of jumping faults were tallied in divisions across the board. Although there were time faults, they were generally less of an issue. By the time the victory gallops were completed, all but 25 starters ended up completing all three phases of the competition.

In the Beginner Novice Horse Division, NODA's 2009 Horse Trials and First Level Adult Amateur Champion Jennifer Milliner of North Jackson Ohio landed Rocky – an 11 year-old off the track Thoroughbred born in Chile and a great-grandson of Affirmed – in third place with a score of 33.0, not far behind the leader's score of 30.0 after the dressage phase. The duo, who has been USEA Area 8 Beginner Novice Champion in amateur and adult rider, had a rough time over fences at the event and ended up finishing out of the ribbons.

"We had a bit of a set back last year and are trying to work through it still this year. We were 2nd at Stone Gate Farm's mini trial in June, but had a slip into fence #4 on cross country at South Farm. Then we had a stop on stadium. Overall I'm seeing progress. It's not always a picnic, that's how we become better riders. I like South Farm because it's only an hour away and they always have a nice course.”

NODA member Deborah Busta of Fairlawn did a nice, steady job guiding her 14 year old Connemara, Ridgetop Dublin Grey to join the victory gallop in the Novice A division. Proving that the number 13 isn't always unlucky, the duo capitalized on the strengths of Connemara breed and jumped their way from 13th place after dressage to a 7th place finish after stadium.

Deb is testimony to personal commitment and perseverance. “Several years ago I had a very bad fall and broke my neck. I thought that my eventing career was over, but after several months I decided to try it again. I chose South Farm to do that first event because I knew that the cross country course would be fair for the level and the fences would be safely constructed. I always include both of the South Farm recognized competitions in my schedule and I try to do as many of the unrecognized competitions as I can. To me, South Farm is the best example of what a horse trial should be. The grounds are always meticulous, the courses are well designed and the fences are nicely constructed. Everyone that you have to deal with from the folks who help to park your trailer to the organizer, Sarah Greer, is just great. My eventing coach, Carol Kozlowski, came to the event for the first time. Her comment to me was that it was one of the most “competitor friendly” events she'd ever been to, and she certainly would be back!”

In addition to Jen and Deb, NODA members Colleen Grant and Debbie McCaughtry also competed in this event. As a sponsor, member Lisa Gorretta was also on grounds, with The Paddock Saddlery providing division winners with beautiful lead shanks – appropriately made in the USA for this 4th of July event! Commenting on the show, Lisa said, “The Paddock is proud to sponsor the Championship awards for South Farm's 2010 Summer Horse Trials. We are pleased to have this opportunity to recognize the competitors at one of the region's most respected eventing competitions. Events like these take a proverbial village to put on each year. Our sponsorship is part of our commitment to all who participate in Equestrian sports in the area.”

If you'd like to get a first hand look at the cross-country phase of the South Farm Horse Trial, visit www.SouthFarm.net and check out the cross country training level helmet cam ride by Lynn Cronin on Keebler of Hamilton Michigan. It's pretty cool, so enjoy the ride through the fields, water, bank and woods, all without having to strap on an arm band or vest from this unique view. By the way, the ride is just over the division's optimum time of 6:22 (2675 meters at 420 meters per minute, so hang on!). You can also view complete horse show results on the farm's web site, or obtain info on the Fall Horse Trial over Labor Day weekend, or Mini Trial and Schooling Dressage Show on September 12.

Major Anders Lindgren Scholarship – Deadline September 30th

The $10,000 Major Anders Lindgren Scholarship is awarded annually to help with the expenses involved with pursuit of study and training abroad to improve the teaching and training of Dressage.

"Everybody wants results, some people want to see their horses move up the levels, some want to show successfully, others want to feel that their riding is improving and still others want to enjoy and be comfortable around their horse. To achieve any of these results the horses need to be ridden regularly and consistently. This is one of the most important points I'm bringing home from Germany. I'd like to sincerely thank The Dressage Foundation."

The scholarship is what made this wonderful learning experience possible for me."

Equestrian Stylista

A monthly review of what's new in equestrian apparel and equipment.

August 2010- GPA Speed Air Evolution Helmet

Have you taken a look at your helmet lately? Has it suffered a fall, or is it more than two years old? Many of us have helmets that may not be protecting us in the way they should! That's what a few of us at my barn discovered after picking up and examining our helmets. Mine was outdated, and I decided to purchase a new one.

GPA helmets are fashionable and superbly made. I bought the GPA Speed Air Evolution, which is GPA's newest helmet. The original version, the Speed Air, known as the "bug eye" helmet, was the predecessor of the Evolution. Similar in design, the Evolution offers a soft-touch finish, updated nape protector, and more ventilation. Speaking of ventilation, the Speed Air Evolution is excellent in keeping you cool! With my old helmet, I would get so hot and sweaty after a summer lesson. With the GPA Evolution, however, I stay cool and dry. The padding inside is removable and washable. The helmet is also very lightweight, and feels like you're not wearing one at all! In addition, it has a very sharp professional look, and we all agree looks great even in the show ring with a coat! I recommend the GPA Speed Air Evolution to everyone; I absolutely love it!
