Greetings from the President

Dee Liebenthal and Rens

Dear Noda Members,

The show season is almost over and the Schooling Show Series Championship is not far off. I know that it has been a very busy season for everyone, and our members have had lots of choices of shows and events in our area and surrounding areas. We hope that the summer of 2014 has proven to be a great season for riding and learning for all of our members.

From Concern to WOW!!!!

We were concerned that there seemed to be little interest from NODA riders in the Janet Foy clinic, "How to create a Freestyle." Yes, we knew that it was Labor Day weekend...but it was hard to believe that not more riders were interested in this great opportunity. Fast forward to August 30th and the actual event, and all I can is "WOW!" We had four riders at four levels, each with freestyles or freestyle ideas in the entire range of development, from nothing at all to "needs a little tweaking." Janet helped each rider create or enhance an appropriate pattern, to music, in less than hour. Auditors' comments that were overhead included "awesome", "fabulous", "great idea", "lots of fun" and "eye opening". Auditors left believing they, too, could do a freestyle. It was really fun in spite of being the hottest day of the summer.

Our thanks go out to Lisa Gorretta, Heidi Kohl, and Janet Foy, who brainstormed the idea well over a year ago, Jack Kohl and the very helpful staff of Rockin' K Ranch, Brooks DJs for music support, and Debbie Savage, new faculty member at LEC, who graciously wrote down the patterns for the riders. We want to thank the riders, Rhonna Crook, Barb Soukup, Anne McClintock, and Sarah Diggin, and the many auditors who took advantage of this wonderful and rare opportunity. And finally, it couldn't and wouldn't have happened without the hard work of Marcia Doyle and Berni Moauro, Co-Chairs of NODA's Education Committee. You guys are the absolute best! We are already talking about doing this type of event again.

Coming events:

In Memory of Kathy Beck

by Brenda Aughenbaugh

This year, and for the next 4 years, the NODA Recognized Shows, Dressage and Dressage Encore, will award the Kathleen (Kathy) Beck Memorial Trophy and scholarship to the Adult Amateur Champion at Third Level.

For many years, Kathy was a NODA member and competed at Recognized Dressage Shows. She was born in Copley, Ohio where her Grandfather raised and raced Standardbred horses. She started riding when she was six years old and her riding background ranged from a retired circus pony, to an Ohio State Championship in Western Parade, to Arabian classes at COSCA shows and then to dressage competitions with Tareq (Arabian), Szuler (Trakehner) and Novarro (Trakehner).

Kathy was passionate about learning dressage and even after she no longer competed, she pursued her equestrian education with many top trainers and competitors, among them, Connie Lasalle Wyatt, Carol Grant, Kay Meredith, Betsy Rebar Sell, George Williams and Curtis Sage. Kathy's love of horses was also kept nourished via trail rides throughout regional park systems. She firmly believed her horses had earned their rides through the parks and benefitted from the opportunity to relax and enjoy their leisure together.

"Riding Run Saddlery" was Kathy's tack business. She and her mobile tack and equestrian clothing unit traveled to many shows in the Region II Area. Her Art degree from Adrian College (MI) benefitted many dressage riders. Kathy was skillful at coordinating breeches, shirts, vests and gloves so that the final look was more than "riding clothes," it was an "elegant ensemble." The horses were beautifully appointed as well with bridle, saddle pads, coolers, and horse blankets.

Kathy loved all animals, the outdoors and traveling. Her limitless compassion, extraordinary courage, and quiet strength were an inspiration to all who knew her, especially to her husband, Tim. Here's to the hope that this NODA award will be one way to celebrate her memory and love.

Kathleen (Nice) Beck, 67, of Richfield, Ohio, died at home on February 13, 2014, after a long and hard-fought illness. She is survived by her husband of 45 years, Tim Beck (Richfield, Ohio); brother, Minor Nice (Newark, Ohio); and niece, Amy Riggs (Dublin, Ohio). - See more at: <http://www.legacy.com/obituaries/ohio/obituary.aspx?pid=169807665#sthash.j1uXTt9S.dpuf>

We would like to thank everyone who helped at this past weekend's schooling show at Chagrin Valley Farms, all the volunteers who helped set up the ring Friday afternoon and tear it down again Sunday after the show. Also all the people who volunteered during the show. The day always goes smoother when everyone helps out.

Also a very big thank you to Dagmar Zimmerman and Dorothy Mueller our judges, especially since this show was Dagmar's last show as a judge! We appreciate all your years of experience.

We hope to see everyone in Rocky River, as this is the last chance to qualify for the NODA Schooling Show Championships.

Lifetime Achievement Award Nominations Open

NODA's Lifetime Achievement Award to recognize and honor individuals who have devoted countless hours of service to NODA in the pursuit of excellence both to NODA and to our sport of Dressage. This is to recognize those individuals both in our spotlight and the ones in the trenches quietly just doing the work. It would be the person you think of when you want something done, or someone who would remember how it has been done in the past, or someone who served years doing our committee work. It could even be those individuals who might not be active anymore, but helped to create the NODA we enjoy today. When we discuss the beginnings of NODA, their names will often be mentioned. These are important people and should be remembered and honored.

Information & Nomination Form is at www.nodarider.org

Deadline for applications is September 30. E-mail or mail completed applications to Mary Lou Gallagher.
