Greetings from the President

Dee Liebenthal and Rens

Dear Noda Members,
Our first schooling show of the season, held at Chagrin Valley Farms, went very well. CVF was ready for us and everyone enjoyed themselves. Thank you to CVF and its staff. The rain stayed away giving us a beautiful day with sunshine and nice warm weather. Participation was good, but we could have easily handled more competitors. There is a lot of competition for schooling show participants these days, and we are feeling the pain. NODA does seem to struggle to keep its numbers up enough to break even with our expenses. Our schooling show series used to support itself and was even able to contribute a little money to bring in judges from out of town and to support other NODA sponsored events.

We are asking ourselves what we can do to keep our shows self-supporting. Among other questions, we wonder whether we need to reduce the number of shows in our series, and/or do we need to go to a system of sanctioning similar to those of other GMOs? In an effort to increase participation we updated our rules for year-end award qualifications, and now require scores from two NODA shows. We will evaluate the effect of this change as the season goes on.

We would love to have some feedback from our schooling show competitors. We need to know how you feel about the series and your general opinion of schooling shows in our area. What are your favorite venues? What do you like and what don't you like? What would you like to see us add or eliminate? Tell us the good, the bad, and the ugly. Please let Kathy Kirchner (MemberRep@nodarider.org) or Kara Maruszak (SchoolingShow@nodarider.org), or me (president@nodarider.org) know your thoughts.

As I write this we are heading into the week prior to our second schooling show of the season, a partnering with CADS for a two-day show weekend at Ridgewood Stables. I am anxious to see how this turns out. Ridgewood, the current home of CADS, is a part of NODA's past. Do any of you remember attending shows there in past years? It was before my time with NODA. Some of our members will have to travel a bit to get there; however, west side and southern competitors will find it convenient.

The much anticipated Recognized Shows at our new venue, Chagrin Valley Farms, are just about six weeks away. We are racing to the finish line to make sure that everything is ready and complete. Feedback has been positive, but we are going to need lots more sponsors and advertisers, and a ton of volunteers. We encourage everyone to sponsor a class or to advertise. Take advantage of our many available levels of sponsorship. Everyone who sponsors a class will be entered in a raffle for a $50 Gift Card from Big Dee's. We believe that because CVF's location is more convenient for much of our membership, we will be better able to recruit volunteers -- and we need many more volunteers. There is information in this month's issue regarding what we need and who to contact. PLEASE help make this show a success. Remember that we can't exist without all our volunteers.

Please take note of a couple of good articles in this month's issue of the NODA News. There is an excellent article on hoof health and also a very nice summary of the Sarah Martin Clinic from the end of April by our Jr/YR Liaison, Lauren Hunter.

It is time for the LEC Dressage Derby I & II, June 20th and 21st. I encourage NODA members to volunteer to help with these very popular shows. Lots of NODA members compete at these shows, and with LEC student out of school for the summer, volunteers are harder to find. I know that competitors enjoy having these shows available during the month of June and no one wants to see them go away. Please support these shows. Following is what is being offered by LEC to those that volunteer.

- Volunteers working 5 hours or greater Saturday OR Sunday will get a Lake Erie College cloth tote bag plus free lunch at concession stand.
- Volunteers working 8 hours or more Saturday AND Sunday will receive FREE Auditor Admission to Hilda Gurney Clinic on Monday plus a Lake Erie College cloth tote bag along with free lunch at concession stand.

Needed: Scribes for both the indoor and outdoor ring, In-Gate Steward for both indoor and outdoor rings plus the outdoor warm-up ring. Secretary's Assistant/Tabulator and Runners.

Volunteers please email Courtney Newby at cnewby@lec.edu or call 440-375-8000 for volunteer information and scheduling.

2015 will be my last year as President. If you are interested in becoming a member of the NODA board, I encourage you to attend a couple of our monthly meetings, held on the second Monday of each month at Panera in Solon, from 7PM to 9PM, to get a feel for what is going on. If you would like to facilitate change and help the organization forward into the future, we would welcome your involvement. Our lives are busy, but we always seem able to make time for something that we love. Through the influence of the GMO, you can also have some impact with the USDF through voting at the Annual Convention. Would you like to be more involved? Would you like to see change? Please join us!

Happy June,
Dee Liebenthal, President

$ NODA Professional Member Grant Opportunities $ Professionals — Trainers, Instructors
Need help financially for continuing education in riding, training and theory of dressage and related subjects?

NODA's Professional Grant Funding can help make this possible.

50% of event cost is reimbursable (up to $200). Symposiums, certification clinics, judging seminars and other educational seminars are all permissible (only riding clinics are not permissible).

Just apply to NODA's board in writing — Tell why you should receive a grant, what function you plan, where it is located, and the cost of the event. Also include how you currently support NODA and how you will give back the content of the program that you attended to NODA. Will you offer a lecture, clinic, or write an article for NODA News?

You can receive 50% (up to $200) of the cost of the event. The only requirement — you must be a "Professional" horseperson as defined by the current USEF rule book and be a member in good standing with NODA.

Value Priced Horse Supplies Since 1948

8255 E. Washington St., Chagrin Falls, OH 44023

Dear Friends,

The Northern Ohio Dressage Association (NODA), with a membership of more than 300, has organized and hosted annual Recognized horse shows in our area since 1988. This year our shows, Dressage 2015 and Dressage Encore 2015, will be held on July 18 and 19 at Chagrin Valley Farms in Chagrin Falls, Ohio. We know that the success of these shows is the direct result of generous support from sponsors, patrons, advertisers, and competitors. We invite you to join us for this exciting weekend.

Dressage 2015 and Dressage Encore 2015 competitions are licensed and recognized by the United States Equestrian Federation and the United States Dressage Federation, and bring out a large crowd as competitors and spectators arrive from Ohio, New York, Michigan, and Pennsylvania. For many, the highlight of the weekend is the fabulous Saturday evening Musical Freestyles rides accompanied by the annual competitors' party. NODA's membership includes dedicated and talented top equestrian professionals, national and international competitors in the dressage arena, up and coming young riders, para equestrians, and adult amateurs. A leader in dressage and equestrian values in the Midwest, NODA's Dressage 2015 and Dressage Encore 2015 offer an excellent opportunity for you to support equestrian education and competition while getting your message out on our dynamic award-winning website, and in the monthly NODA News.

NODA offers sponsorship and advertising opportunities at all levels to meet your unique needs as an individual or organization. An affordable class sponsorship allows an individual or small business to sponsor a class in your own name, your barn's name, or in honor or memory of a beloved horse or friend. Or consider NODA's Gold, Silver, or Bronze sponsorships, which provide ongoing high visibility as they reach NODA's membership and other horse enthusiasts long after the competition is over. Do you know an individual or business that may have an interest in sponsoring or advertising with NODA? Your help in sharing this letter with people with whom you regularly do business, and asking for their support, would be greatly appreciated.

The Advertising and Sponsorship form is attached. We count on your support to sustain NODA's growth and make our recognized shows bigger and better each year. Your support also helps provide much needed funds for educational events and scholarships that benefit all members of our organization.

Thank you for your efforts in continuing to help NODA grow!

Sincerely,

Niki Sackman

Rules Quiz for Showing at a USEF-Recognized Dressage Show

Answers on Page 22

Could you be eliminated? Yes or No:

1. You feed your horse a red peppermint treat a few minutes before your test. During the test his mouth starts to foam and the foam has a pinkish tinge.
2. You wear short paddock boots with breeches, resulting in 3 inches of bare leg showing between the top of your socks and the bottom of your breeches.
3. Your horse trips and briefly gets his front feet outside the ring fence.
4. You're in a First Level test, and you forget to wear your gloves.
5. Your horse stops and refuses to go forward for 20 seconds.
6. You ride your test with your horse's mane unbraided.
7. The ring steward wants to check your horse's bit before your test and you refuse.
8. The ring steward wants to check your bit without a disposable glove. You refuse.
9. You use a roller bit in warm-up but change it before riding your test.
10. Your coach gives you instructions while you circle the ring before your test starts.
11. The judge hears you cluck three times in a test and marks it on the score sheet.
12. Your horse stumbles and you fly over his head. You remount.
13. You aren't sure if your horse will behave, so you enter your first test hors d'concours (HC). It goes well, so you decide to ride for a score in your next test.
14. Your horse starts limping during a test, so the judge eliminates you for lameness. You find a rock in the horse's shoe and remove it. You re-enter the same ring later for a second test.
15. You wear a top hat in an FEI-level test.
16. You wear smooth-leather half chaps in a Training Level test.

Fill in the blank:

17. When are you eliminated for going off course: The first time, the second time, the third time or the fourth time?
18. Must you change classes if the judge is the trainer of your trainer?
19. How many bridle numbers must your horse wear?
20. If your stirrup leather breaks during a test, can you have a time out to replace it?
21. What is the maximum length (in inches) of a whip allowed in the competition ring?
22. Can you use a crupper in competition?
23. Are you eliminated if your horse falls down?
24. How long do you have to enter the ring after the judge rings her bell to start the test?

25. How many points are deducted for the second error in a test?
26. While in the ring riding your test, the judge rings her bell. Do you halt?
27. It's windy and rainy and your number blows off your horse's bridle and gets trampled in the mud before your test. Can you show without it?
28. As you enter the ring, you realize you're still carrying your whip in your right hand. Is it okay to salute with the left hand?
29. If someone signs an entry as your trainer, what are they responsible for at the show?

Plus some fun general interest questions:

30. What is the name of the horse that won two dressage gold medals (team and individual) at the last Olympic Games, in London in 2012?
31. What is the main breed used at the Spanish Riding School in Vienna?
32. Rembrandt won two individual gold medals in Olympic dressage, in 1988 and 1992, and also two team golds. What country's team was Rembrandt on?
33. There are three dressage tests used in Olympic dressage. Name one.
34. On what piece of tack would you find a "port"?
35. Name the main agency that writes rules for dressage shows in the U.S.
36. Do most horse boots fasten back to front or front to back?
37. At the walk, which hoof strikes the ground after the left hind?
38. How many inches is a 14.1hh pony?
39. Name one of the two components of the gait score on a dressage test.
40. Are you allowed to ride a mule in a dressage show?
41. What does the "L" after the judge's name at a schooling show stand for?
42. Approximately how many feet wide is a dressage arena?
43. What does TD stand for?
44. What does FEI stand for?
45. What disease does the Coggins test check for?
46. What is a horse's normal temperature?
47. What is another name for "haunches in"?
48. Which of these letters is not used in a standard dressage arena – S,G,L,T,E,B,V?
49. When holding the reins properly, which part of the hand should be the highest?
50. Which of these letters is not used in a standard dressage arena – A,P,K,R,N,P,G?

Congratulations to the competitors who competed at our first NODA Schooling Show of the season! We had surprisingly great weather for the show Sunday.

Thank You to our judges, Kerry Petty and Barbara Soukup, along with the all the volunteers this weekend who helped with ring set-up, the show, and ring tear down.

Our hard working volunteers were: Maggie Ball, Shari Bobrowicz, Danielle Bolm, Sally Burton, Suzanne Carlton, Halle Clause, Mary Lou Gallagher, Heidi Hoffman, Susan Michalek, Nancy Murnyack, Victoria Pirko-Patterson, Karen Ruple, Beth Scalabrino, Danielle Struna, and Patti Valencic!

It's time to volunteer for Dressage 2015 and Dressage 2015 Encore!

NODA's popular recognized shows weekend is July 18 and 19 at Chagrin Valley Farm in Bainbridge, OH.

We need your volunteer help. It is fun and rewarding.

Volunteers earn valuable NODA bucks and a cool NODA T-Shirt.

Scribes, tabulators, runners, paddock masters/ring stewards, office assistants, and "Welcome Tent volunteers are needed for morning and afternoon shifts Saturday and Sunday.

Set-up crews for the dressage arenas are needed Thursday, July 16.

Tear-down crews for the arenas are needed Sunday, July 19 after the show. I will do my best to give everyone their first choice of jobs and shifts. Some jobs, such as scribes, need to be filled by people who are not showing (or are finished showing for the weekend). Scribes are the only volunteer jobs that need prior experience, and they need to be willing to volunteer for the entire day because the judges always request that they have the same person for the entire day (if possible). Volunteer Job Descriptions, NODA Buck information and FAQ available on the Volunteer Page on the NODA website, www.nodarider.org.

We receive compliments every year from competitors, spectators, and judges regarding our organized, well run show and our wonderful volunteers. Our volunteers make or break the success of our shows.

Can you help? Please contact Karen: Rs-vol-coord@nodarider.org, or call 330-220-4705 (home) or 440-263-1944 (cell) with your preference of jobs and your availability as soon as possible.

Thank you!

Sarah Martin Clinic Recap

By Lauren Hunter • Photos by Dee Liebenthal

Sarah Martin is a highly accomplished member of the dressage community for a number of reasons. She is not only a successful trainer and rider in the show ring, but also a well-respected teacher. She has earned her USDF bronze, silver, and gold medals and trained USDF Horse of the Year horses and riders from Training Level through Prix St Georges. Furthermore, she is a USDF Certified Second and Fourth Level Instructor Trainer and a USDF "L" Program Graduate with Distinction.

In a clinic hosted by NODA at Sand Hill Stables in Mantua on April 25-26, Sarah Martin provided both riders and auditors with a highly educational experience. One quality that makes Sarah unique and valuable as a teacher is her

Tara Kilburg & Will

Why is my horse so lazy?

Over the weekend, Sarah explained to one rider that often a horse can be misdiagnosed as "lazy" when he or she is in fact quite sensitive. "Sensitive horses will often act lazy to protect themselves," she explains. For example, a horse who loses balance may freeze or suck back out of intimidation rather than laziness. This is an important difference. For example, if a rider thinks their horse is being lazy and applies stronger aids, a sensitive horse is likely to shut down even more.

Sometimes, however, horses truly are lazy. After winter, many riders struggle to get their horses forward because the horse is out of shape after inconsistent or light work routines. For this, Sarah recommended that riders focus ability to adapt to students of all levels and disciplines. Her great attention to detail allows her to break down every concept into "bite-sized" pieces of information that are accurate yet simple enough for riders of any discipline or level to understand. Rather than merely telling riders what to do, she explains why.

on interval training to build up the horse's strength and stamina. Remember not to be too picky or push your horse too hard. As dressage riders, we are programmed to seek out where we and our horses fall short of perfection. However, Sarah reminds us that it is an invaluable skill to also know when to leave it alone. What we need to seek is improvement, not perfection.

Why is my horse spooking?

In another lesson, Sarah teaches a young rider how to address fear in her Arabian mare by explaining the science behind her behavior. "Being nervous," she says, "releases bursts of adrenaline. In both people and horses, this can become chemically addicting." A horse who looks for something at which to spook is displaying similar behaviors to a person who goes to scary movies or enjoys the thrills of bungee jumping. Sarah says half-jokingly that, "Arabians LOVE to be scared!" To address this, Sarah shows the young rider how to make her seat a safe and secure place for the horse to go to when she is nervous.

Why do I need to practice halts?

Halts on the centerline are the most common movement in all of dressage. Throughout the levels, every test has one in the beginning and end. Considering that this movement accounts for two scores in every single test we ride, it deserves a significant amount of attention, according to Sarah. At the end of every ride throughout the weekend, every rider was asked to halt reasonably square and straight on the centerline. They remained there, immobile, for about a minute. The purpose of this exercise is to make a connection in the horse's mind between the halt, a job well-done, and the end of work. Additionally, the immobility of the horse and stillness of the rider allows the horse time to process their lesson and relax the mind and body. It allows them to find a comfortable and balanced place between the aids, and rewards them for their efforts.

These are just a few of the many lessons learned by those who attended and audited the riding portion of the clinic. Sarah also spoke on the topic of Western dressage and taught a few Western dressage lessons. New USDF Rider Awards Announced for 2016

Lexington, KY (May 20, 2015) - The United States Dressage Federation (USDF) announced today the new Dressage Seat Equitation Rider Awards, to first be awarded in the 2016 competition year. Available to both USDF Participating and Group Members, riding in any division, these awards are designed to recognize riders' achievements in equitation and will be awarded at three levels; Elementary, Accomplished, and Elite. For each level, riders must earn five scores of 65 percent, 72 percent, and 80 percent, respectively.

As with other USDF Rider Awards, scores do not expire and do not need to be earned within one competition year. While the first USDF Dressage Seat Equitation Rider Awards will not be awarded until the 2016 competition year, scores from current or past Dressage Seat Equitation classes may be eligible. Winners of these awards will receive a certificate of recognition as well as a specially designed USDF lapel pin, in yellow, red, and blue for the respective levels.

USDF Awards Committee Chair Peggy Klump explained, "We are so pleased to be able to provide the well deserved acknowledgement and recognition to those individuals excelling in dressage equitation. This is an important aspect to our sport and these awards further USDF's mission of recognizing achievements, as well as providing yet another national level honor to be bestowed upon not only USDF Participating Members, but Group Members as well, in any division of competition."

For more information about the USDF Dressage Seat Equitation Rider Awards, or other USDF Rider Awards, visit the USDF website at www.usdf.org, or contact the USDF office at riderawards@usdf.org.

Founded in 1973, the United States Dressage Federation is a nonprofit membership organization dedicated to education, recognition of achievement, and promotion of dressage. For more information about USDF membership or programs, visit www.usdf.org, e-mail usdressage@usdf.org.

USDF Launches new Youth Dressage Sport Horse Breeder/Handler Seminar

Lexington, KY (May 26, 2015) - The United States Dressage Federation (USDF) is pleased to announce its partnership with Dressage at Devon to create a new sport horse seminar geared toward youth. This new seminar has been created to familiarize the younger generation with the dressage sport horse industry. The seminar will be held over two days, September 28-29 at Dressage at Devon, and will consist of classroom and practical handling sessions, along with the opportunity to observe competition classes and practice judging. Participation is limited to USDF members between the ages of fourteen and 23, with only twelve spots available.

"Developed by the USDF Sport Horse Committee, this program is oriented toward youth with an interest in sport horse breeding. We are so excited that Dressage at Devon has offered to help us kick off our first program this fall, to familiarize youth with the breeding and showing of dressage prospects and breeding stock," stated Kristi Wysocki, USDF Sport Horse Committee Chair.

For more information on the USDF Youth Dressage Sport Horse Breeder/Handler Seminar, or to access an application, please visit the USDF website at www.usdf.org, or contact the USDF Sport Horse Committee liaison at sporthorse@usdf.org.

2015 Membership Form

NODA membership runs
12/1/2014 through 11/30/2015

NODA is a United States Dressage Federation Group Member Organization

A portion of your NODA membership dues go towards your group membership in USDF. A USDF Group Membership (GM) makes you eligible for USDF Rider Awards. Group Members may participate in recognized shows without the payment of USDF non-member fees, are eligible to earn university credits, receive member discount rates for USDF events, and receive the USDF Connection magazine. (Supporting Family members do not receive a subscription to the USDF Connection – one magazine per "family.") See www.nodarider.org or www.usdf.org for eligibility to qualify for USDF regional and national championships. Note that Participating Membership in USDF is needed to compete in USDF Regional Championships.
