Dear Noda Members,

The holidays are over and we are off and running with our 2016 plans for NODA. I am excited by all the new involvement from members and the fabulous ideas that have been pouring in. If you are wondering what is on the agenda and what changes we are making (and I hope you are), all will be revealed soon. I am certain you will be as excited as we are. Most of these changes this year will be to our schooling show program, to enhance the educational experience as well as increase the competitors' enjoyment. Stay tuned!

I want to say a sad good-bye and big thank you to Kara Maruszak, who has served as Schooling Show Chair/Manager for the last two years. Kara is taking her organizational skills, attention to detail, and the ability to deal with the demands of law school, a job, and our schooling show series to Columbus to start her new career as a lawyer. Congratulations, Kara. You will be missed, and we wish you great success.

As we say good-bye to Kara, we welcome Sally Burton, who will be taking over for Kara as the Chair/Manager of the Schooling Show Committee. We hope to have a little bio available soon for Sally in the newsletter and on the website; however, I think many of you already know her. Sally comes with all the excitement and ideas of someone starting a brand new job, and her excitement is totally infectious.

Greetings from the President

Sally's excitement and enthusiasm join that of all new members on the NODA Board and Committees.

Kirsten Thomas is our SS volunteer coordinator; Halle Clause is a Director at Large and Western Dressage Liaison, and our new Vice President is Christine Thompson. Their influence will re-energize us all and help lead us forward into the future. I am extremely excited.

We are still looking for a few people to help us out in 2016. We are desperately in need of someone who will come on as Assistant Volunteer Coordinator for the Recognized Shows. We also need a coordinator for the Silent Auction. If you are interested in helping to facilitate educational opportunities, there is room for you on our Education Committee. For information on any of these please contact Kathy Kirchner, NODAs Member Liaison at memberrep@nodarider.org.

For those of you who may have missed the election results, Niki Sackman has retired from her VP position, but she isn't going anywhere. We won't let her. However, I do want to publically say thank you to Niki for her service as NODA VP and Recognized Show Chair for the past four years. The Recognized Shows would not have successfully returned to CVF without Niki. She was a huge part of making it all happen. Niki has served NODA well in several positions and will continue to do so as a newly-elected Director at Large. She has pledged to continue to bring us her expertise and experience with the Recognized Shows as a member of the show committee, and to NODA in general where and when needed. Niki is a very valuable member of our team. Her experiences with NODA are too numerous to list. We thank Niki for everything she's done in the past and look forward to her many contributions in the future.

This issue includes reports on the NODA Banquet and Awards Celebration. We hope you enjoy the pictures. Check out the submissions by Dr. Jeni Gaffney, winner of the Fabian Schoolmaster Award, and Wendy Gruskiewicz for her husband Mike, who won the Edy Ujcz Partnership Trophy.

Speaking of Dr. Jeni Gaffney, see the terrific article she wrote, "It's All Roberta's Fault," describing her experience at Devon with Fabio in 2015. We at NODA have been following this accomplished pair with great pride.

Do you have an experience you would like to share with your fellow NODA members? If so, please write an article. Every year NODA submits two articles to the USDF for GMO awards. We can submit an article from a "personal experience" and an article that is of "general interest." If your article wins, you will be awarded a lovely plaque at the USDF Annual Meeting, and if you are at the convention to receive your award, you can get your photo taken with George Williams! You will join the list of NODA members who have won for their articles. Some recent winners are Jeni Gaffney, Niki Sackman, Regina Sacha-Ujcz, and Mosie Welch. You can also earn some NODA bucks towards your own year-end awards and maybe inspire someone else with your experience.

Happy New Year Everyone – It's going to be an exciting one for NODA, so stay tuned.

Dee Liebenthal, President

$ NODA Professional Member Grant Opportunities $

Professionals — Trainers, Instructors

Need help financially for continuing education in riding, training and theory of dressage and related subjects?

NODA's Professional Grant Funding can help make this possible.

50% of an event cost is reimbursable (up to $200). Symposiums, certification clinics, judging seminars and other educational seminars are all permissible (excludes riding clinics).

To apply, write a letter and mail it to the NODA Board c/o Mary Dana Prescott. Outline why you should receive a NODA Professional Grant, explaining what the education function is, and where it is to be held. State how you will share what you have learned with NODA and its members (lecture, clinic, or article). Be sure to provide the full cost of education function.

The only requirement is that you must be a "Professional" horseperson as defined by the current USEF rule book and be a member in good standing with NODA.

It's All Roberta's Fault By Dr. Jeni Gaffney

About a year ago, I mentioned to Roberta that I would like to achieve my USDF gold medal. It was the start of a wonderful adventure. Roberta worked some magic linking Kristy Lund, the owner of the wonder horse Fabio with me. Fabio has competed and won many USDF Horse of the Year awards with Kristy. We just discovered that he is number two in all time USDF Horse of the Year awards!

Fabio is a 19 year old bay Oldenburg gelding with a heart of gold. They tell me he was quite a hellion as a youngster! He has many defining habits one of which is to stick his tongue out when he is relaxed. We get many smiles and people often point to his tongue on the way to and from the warm up. Never fear the tongue disappears once we start to collect. He looks like a very small plain horse until he starts to work. The extended trot is like floating on air and often elicits an "ah" or two! He has been very patient as I learn the timing of the aids for the FEI movements. I am still trying to master the not so simple things like going straight, finding the outside rein and connection. The simple things are really not easy and make all the difference in the quality of the actual movements! See I have learned from Fabio, Roberta, Noel and George.

Now, back to our adventures. Fabio arrived in Ohio in May. I quickly learned that I needed to lose some weight and get into better physical shape. (There is only so much that can be done when you are over 50)! Roberta took on the task of trying to help me to find my seat - still a work in progress. George is trying to help me to find connection and the timing of the aids for all these new movements. Our training sessions take place at a beautiful facility in Ravenna called Freedom Farm. It is on the cover of The Ultimate Barns book! Fabio and I have made many new friends with the staff. The staff even puts up with me arriving promptly every day at 7 AM for my 7:30 lesson with some member of the Williams Family. Then I have to hurry to make a 9 AM appointment at my office!

In July, Noel said "we should go to a show" so off we went to Waterloo. A joint decision was made that we should start at PSG. I was the DP (dressage princess) of the show. I arrived a day late due to work conflicts to find a beautiful tack room set up and Fabio munching hay. I was so scared I might forget the test that I stayed up all night. I rode the test at least 2,000 times in my head. I am sure no one else has the same test anxiety. It is a good thing that my fearless roommate, Noel is a deep sleeper. The next morning, I rode the PSG test alternating from a big smile to tears! It was so much fun even though I just rode the test and not the horse. I think George went to hide when he saw the tears but Roberta (whose fault it was) came to congratulate us. Fabio just stuck his tongue out and walked back to the barn—tears do not frighten him. When the score appeared on my phone, we had a big celebration! 65% and a qualifying score - maybe regionals were in store. The next morning I transformed into a DQ (dressage queen) as George was cleaning my stall! I tried valiantly to wrestle the pitchfork from him but he said that he liked to clean stalls so I let him. GW frequently displays his excellent horse management skills and seems to really love these wonderful creatures.

In August, Noel came up with the idea of a freestyle. Why not try it! We had one show left to qualify so we went for it. I consulted with Kristy and she had done an I1 freestyle to Simon and Garfunkel which is one of my favorite groups. Lauren Mansky, a Bath pony club member, and musical freestyle genius, came to the rescue to find the tempo of Fabio's gaits and her mother, Terry, found the music! Life got in the way of making the choreography when my mother had complications from a serious fall down the steps. Somehow Noel and I still made it to the last Waterloo show by leaving at 4:30 AM for a 9AM ride. We arrived 20 mins before the I1 ride that I needed to qualify for regionals. I got dressed at the trailer (no DQ at this show) while Noel tacked up Fabio. The score was achieved and we talked about just heading home. However, the CD with the freestyle music was burning a hole in our britches and we had 2 shows for 2 qualifying scores in the next 2 days. Why not try? Noel and I made the choreography up that afternoon sitting in the Waterloo pavilion. Two rides and two scores later, we were qualified in the freestyle too. George and Roberta received an ecstatic phone call!

Roberta suggested that a CDI at Devon might be within reach. I groomed thirty years ago at Devon, Where Champions Meet, and never dreamed that I might ride down the centerline in the Dixon Oval. They have a new CDI AM (adult amateur PSG and I1) which was in our realm. Off to Devon we went. Colin, my son, left with Noel and Roberta on Monday because they participated in the USDF youth breeder handler symposium. Colin had a great time, learned many new things and saw beautiful horses! Even though he had to take a crash course in braiding, Colin would highly recommend the symposium to other youth USDF members.

The big day finally arrived to depart for Devon. George, Nancy Wentz, Fabio and I arrived on Wednesday in the cold rain which would persist throughout the weekend (yes the weather was Roberta's fault)! "It's all Roberta's fault" became the saying of the weekend. If anyone was hungry, cold, tired, or whining ...it was Roberta's fault! Upon our arrival, we had to wait in line to unload Fabio and our stuff. I was too cheap to pay for a tack stall so my stuff spilled out into the aisle way which proved to be embarrassing as Fabio was stabled between Lisa Wilcox, Juan Matute, Christine Vinios and across from Jim Koford. If there is a next time, I learned my lesson and will get a tack stall. You must be prepared as the horse trailers are parked a long way from the show grounds so you can't retrieve anything you forgot quickly. Luckily, Roberta had advised what to pack in my trunk. Fabio was in the CDI stabling so George and I set off to the show office. By the way, it is difficult to walk anywhere fast at a show with Georgia or Roberta because they have so many friends! I met people that I have read about in magazines. At the office, you get to decide who is allowed in the stabling - 6 wristbands for one horse. (I almost forgot Sean, my husband). Wristbands on and we were ready to show!

What to wear for THE JOG? I decided that I would host a party the Friday before Devon so that my fashionista friends could pick my outfit. Everyone brought clothes and we put together amid many laughs a final outfit! I was a fashion model for a night. The winning outfit consisted of black slim leg jeans (Kim Apicella), a black sparkling scarf (Terry Mansky), a leopard belt (Helen Hutchison), leopard flats (Tracy Strobel), and a leopard Calvin Klein jean jacket (my mom). I even put on makeup (Sean says that he can tell that an event is important if I put on makeup!)

Fabio passed the jog with flying colors and we looked spectacular thanks to my wonderful grooms Colin and

Nancy Wentz. By the way, the magazine people share our worries - Lisa Wilcox asked me if her thighs looked fat in a pair of britches! Everyone looked fat because they were attempting to wear all the clothes in their suitcase to just to try keep warm.

The warm up arena was intimidating the first day! There were huge horses and the people from the magazines riding them. Everyone was on a line and knew what/where they were going. By the way, it was still raining. After riding the first day, it was time to shop! Shop we did- new rubber reins for me, a jacket for Nancy Wentz, hand painted pottery for Karen Russel and Devon memorabilia for everyone at home. We visited the Lazer saddlery booth to see Jeremy and Jan Beale. I was a working student and groomed for Jeremy at Devon over 30 years ago.

The trailer parking situation deserves a short mention. Trailers were parked five minutes away from the show in a field that had just been mowed for the first time in many years. There were weed stems as big around as my finger with barbaric thorns and axle eating divots in the earth. George took on the off road challenge and we found a semi high dry spot. For the next two rainy days, we watched the trailer slowly sink into the mud. When Sean saw the field, he took Colin to rescue the trailer and made a deal to park it at the hotel. I did not get all the details but I know a tractor was involved and they came back to the show covered in mud.

My first test was the PSG. I went into the arena smiling from ear to ear in the pouring cold rain. My loyal friends from Bridlewood, Rockin K, Freedom Farm and Pen-Y-Bryn were there to cheer us on! We had a few mistakes and I do not quite have the connection but we finished fourth.

While pulling the frozen not so white britches off my red legs wearing a big smile, I realized once again that it was all Roberta's fault. "It's all Roberta's fault" had become the mantra of the show- I am still not sure how it started but I think George was involved.

Our next test, the I1 was in the Dixon oval! I have always dreamed of going down centerline towards the sign, Devon Horse Show Where Champions Meet. The tests were live streamed on the USEF channel. Once again, it was misting cold rain (Roberta?). There were 5 judges around a beautifully decorated arena. I forgot to ask George if it was polite to talk to them so I just smiled. I was having the time of my life! Fabio somehow sensed this was a special ride. The excitement around the arena provided more impulsion resulting in an extended trot for several marks of 8. The only mistake was when I went across the diagonal in the tempi's and saw our names in lights! A momentary lapse in concentration resulted in a 3 in the 2's but it was worth it to see our names in lights in the Dixon Oval. I was overcome with emotion after the final salute.

It was not the rain making my face wet and the makeup smear, (yes it was an important event). A yellow ribbon that says Dressage at Devon came home with us.

Devon was a bucket list experience and it was All Roberta's Fault! I wore my CDI wristband until it finally fell off. Sean commented that it was beginning to stink-now it has a place of honor in my jewelry drawer. I just wanted to say a big "Thank you" to Fabio for being my horse of a lifetime and Kristy for sharing your wonderful partner with me. Also to Roberta, Noel and George for all your patience. Sean for helping me to follow a dream. Colin for being the best groom and sharing my horse crazy passion. My only regret is that my mom was unable to participate in this wonderful summer. She instilled and supported my horse adventures for many years. Mom would have been ringside to share my smiles and tears!

Watch for the sequel—Finals and Florida!

The Edy Ujcz Horse Partnership Trophy

Nominee: Mike Gruskiewicz

Submitted by: Wendy Gruskiewicz

My husband Mike is a super hero. Not in a dark Batman kind of way or a flamboyant figure like Spiderman. He is more like Clark Kent, working and watching quietly behind the scenes, ready to don his cape and swoop in when the moment demands. He has, for 40 years, supported and enabled my equine addiction in numerous ways, but in 2015 he truly kept me and my horse business alive.

When I was diagnosed with breast cancer early this spring my husband's Clark Kent personality morphed into Superman once again as he scheduled vacation from his job to feed horses, clean stalls, groom and exercise horses while I was treated. Because of Mike I was able to resume riding only 16 days post-surgery and compete at our Arabian Regional Championship show in Kentucky just 4 weeks later. He is my rock, because of his can-do attitude a terrible diagnosis turned into a very successful year in the show ring.

Here is an example of some of the things my Superman does for me:

Mike fixes things. The horse trailer lights, broken feed tubs, chewed up stalls, broken cross ties, wheel barrows, tractors and trucks. One time he pulled the broken axle out from under our dually truck and replaced it in the parking lot of the Ohio State Fairgrounds by the light of a flashlight. Sometimes he even fixes my broken heart when I lose that special horse to old age.

Mike builds things. Indoor arenas, a beautiful new 22-stall barn, tack rooms, wash stalls, fences, tack trunks and the best horse show set-ups anywhere around. He is often the envy of the horse show neighbors as he hangs stall curtains and decorations with military precision.

Mike hauls things. He often does the majority of the driving to and from horse shows. He lugs trunks and countless gear into the trailer, only to lug the stuff back out at the horse show. He hauls the grooming bag, leg wraps and test books back and forth from the ring. He helps other people schlep their stuff around.

At home he hauls hay, he hauls shavings and he hauls manure.

Mike knows horses. This handsome ex-dairy farmer husband of mine can saddle, bridle, longe, long line, adjust side reins, pick feet, polish feet, body clip, bathe a horse, load any horse on any trailer – in short – anything that is required he has the talent to perform. He has a great eye for a good performance. He knows when a horse is trailing its hocks and he knows when a horse is stiff.

Mike is the best dressage test reader in the world. He knows that a rider needs time to prepare before a movement. He also knows that some riders, like me, might forget if he calls a movement too soon. He reads multiple tests for multiple riders at each show and is often sought out by others to read their tests.

Mike provides emotional support. He is with me at almost every horse show and has seen the good, the bad and the ugly of my very competitive and emotional nature. Yet, he still puts up with me. I enjoy his company while travelling, his thumbs up when I have a great ride and his honest and kind assessment when I don't measure up. Sometimes he knows when to just walk away.

Mike has spent most of his vacation time over the years attending various horse related functions, vacationing at spots such as Devon, PA and Scottsdale, AZ.

Mike does all this while holding down a demanding job as Technical Director at an internationally regarded plastics company and being a loving Daddy to our son Evan.

I would not have had a successful 40 year career as a horse trainer without him, he is truly the wind beneath my wings. I hope to love him for another 40 years.

2015 Fabian Schoolmaster Award Winner Fabio & Dr. Jeni Gaffney

It is difficult to put into words just what Fabio means to me...trying to write this brings tears to my eyes.

Fabio was shown at the Grand Prix level in Florida by his owner, Kristy Lund. Kristy wanted Fabio to spend the summer in a cooler environment as he has some breathing issues. Fabio is a 19 year young, Oldenburg, 15.3 hand bay gelding.

Roberta Williams suggested to Kristy that Fabio might like Ohio and I might be a match for him! (It is all Roberta's fault.)

Last winter, I went to Florida to try Fabio. I am surprised that everyone decided that we were a match. We performed many one tempi changes as I moved my seat around too much and did not have a core at the canter! Any movement means something to him and I was yelling my crude aids. Fabio has taught many new skills to his uneducated rider. I have learned the meaning of true engagement-it really does come from the hind legs and not from my hands. I am developing a core thanks to endless seat lessons with Roberta. I have had many lessons on the theme of connection (I have stretched George's patience with this concept). I have found the timing of the tempi changes although this becomes elusive in the competition ring. I can tell you if the feel of the pirouette is correct. Fabio has endured many fumbles of the aids but when it is right the feel is amazing.

Fabio is worth his weight in Gold. He is an ordinary looking horse with a huge heart. We are competing at PSG and I1 after a few months together. I am learning to ride the horse and not just the test. Fabio makes it easy to have time to think in a test that contains movements which come fast.

Every ride on Fabio is Christmas! I smile ear to ear whether we are riding in a lesson, cantering down centerline at Devon, galloping in an awards ceremony, or hacking in the early morning to check on the swan at Freedom Farm!

IMPORTANT USEF COMPETITION RULE UPDATE

NEW VACCINE REQUIREMENTS

This is a preview for an article that will appear in the February issue of NODA News. However, with Lake Erie College holding a recognized show in March, and the need to keep members who may show during the winter up to date with important rule changes, here is the rule directly from the USEF Website.

NODA Newsletter editors would like to thank Dr. Jeni Gaffney in advance for her work on the upcoming February article.

GR845 Equine Vaccination Rule

1. At Federation licensed competitions, horses entering the grounds must be accompanied by documentation of Equine Influenza Virus and Equine Herpes Virus (Rhinopneumonitis) vaccinations within six months prior to entering the stables. Horses not in compliance with this rule may be required to leave the competition grounds upon request by Competition Management. Documentation should consist of one of the following methods mentioned below. The frequency of vaccine administration should be per the vaccine manufacturers' or veterinarian's recommendations. It is recommended that vaccines are administered by or under the direction of a veterinarian.
2. In the case of vaccines administered by a veterinarian, the exhibitor, upon request by Competition Management, must provide documentation from the veterinarian on documenting that the horse in question received the vaccinations; name of the vaccines and date of vaccine administration.
3. In the case of vaccines administered by a person other than a veterinarian, the exhibitor, upon request by Competition Management, must provide a receipt of the vaccine purchase which is signed by the owner, or agent with care, custody, and control of the horse; name, serial number and expiration date of the vaccine; and date of vaccine administration.
4. In the case of a horse that is unable to receive either of the vaccinations due to a history of adverse reactions, the exhibitor, upon request by Competition Management, must provide a letter from the veterinarian on official letterhead stating that the horse in question cannot be vaccinated due to medical concerns and a log of temperatures taken twice daily for the seven days prior to entering the competition grounds. These horses must also have their temperature taken and logged twice daily while on the competition grounds. The log of temperatures should be provided to the Competition Management, steward, or technical delegate when requested.
5. Competition Management may not amend or enhance vaccination requirements without prior approval of the Veterinary Committee.

BOD 1/17/15 Effective 12/1/15.

Northern Ohio Dressage Association
2016 Membership Form

NODA membership runs
12/1/2015 through 11/30/2016

NODA is a United States Dressage Federation Group Member Organization

A portion of your NODA membership dues go towards your group membership in USDF. A USDF Group Membership (GM) makes you eligible for USDF Rider Awards. Group Members may participate in recognized shows without the payment of USDF non-member fees, are eligible to earn university credits, receive member discount rates for USDF events, and receive the USDF Connection magazine. (Supporting Family members do not receive a subscription to the USDF Connection – one magazine per "family.") See www.nodarider.org or www.usdf.org for eligibility to qualify for USDF regional and national championships. Note that Participating Membership in USDF is needed to compete in USDF Regional Championships.
