Dear NODA Members,
Northern Ohio Dressage Association's 2016 competition year culminated on November 19th with a fabulous year-end Banquet and Awards Celebration at the Crowne Plaza in Independence Ohio. There were 122 members, family and friends in attendance. Many generous people in our dressage community contributed to the success of this year's banquet and we want to say thank you.

Banquet Speaker: Lisa Gorretta, Long time NODA member, NODA Lifetime Achievement member, NODA External Relations Liaison, USDF Vice President, USEF "R" Dressage Technical Delegate, Level 2 FEI Steward for Dressage, and Co-Chair USEF Dressage Committee, gave attendees a taste of what it was like to have been an official at the 2016 Rio Olympics with clarity and humor. Thank you so much for sharing your experience, Lisa.

Banquet Committee: Shannon O'Hara chaired our banquet committee for the third year and as expected did a super job working with the venue. Thank you to all for your help with set up of the venue. Everything was organized, delegated and implemented smoothly.

Volunteers: Thank you for your help with set up of the venue. You were essential to the Banquet's smooth organization and success.

Greetings from the President

Awards Committee: A big thank you to Awards Committee Chair, Janeen Langowski-Grava, for collecting, tabulating and organizing all the award winners. Also, thank you to Lisa Antoniou, who assisted with the year-end ribbons. Thank you to Anne McClintock for collecting and updating all the rotating trophies, and to her husband, Mike McClintock, for helping with set-up and working the trophy contract table. Thank you to Big Dee's Tack & Vet Supplies for their help with the NODA embroidered Sport Duffle Bags awarded to all for the Champions.

Silent Auction Committee: Thank you to our new committee chair Patty Keim along with her solid and organized crew of volunteers, Sally Burton, Kristen Stein, Lea Wojtkiewicz, Kim Shepard, and Kiley Dill. We had a fun and successful Silent Auction and Chinese Auction. Even under the threat of hotel evacuation at the end of the banquet because of a fire alarm, everything was sold and raffled bringing in a record amount of money for our 2017 education events and scholarships. A sincere thank you to all the generous donors and sponsors of our Silent and Chinese Auction. We couldn't do what we do without your continuing support.

It was also great to see so many new faces at this year's banquet. New people help to enhance an organization by adding insights and ideas that foster growth and help keep things fresh for the future.

We hope you are looking forward to 2017 as much as we are. It is going to be another great year for NODA. All our committees are working hard planning our shows and other events. Please don't hesitate to send us any ideas that you have for things that you would like to see NODA do. You can e-mail your comments suggestions or concerns to NODA's Member Liaison, Kathy Kirchner, at memberrep@nodarider.org.

Happy Holidays,

Dee Liebenthal, President

Magical Family Affair!

By Regina Sacha-Ujcz

As a child the only way I saw a horse was on TV or in my dreams. I always said that I would have horses in my life someday. That day came many decades later and now I can't get enough of them! However, despite my daily diet of these magnificent creatures I still dream of them. There is magic within my horning relationships which keeps me in balance and connects me to a greater power.

Many years ago while attending Equitana, I witnessed the horses and riders of my dreams come alive in the spectacular and magical equine theatrical segment produced by the Barteau Family. I was mesmerized by the music, lighting effects, beauty of their horses,

Set in a gorgeous small rural town near Chicago, KYB Dressage is a warm and welcoming farm where music resounds in the arena, family and horse pictures and accolades surround you as they adorn the halls and walls. Replete with horse statues and memorabilia, the warmth envelopes and captures your attention and your spirit!

Truly a family affair, The KYB family began with two life-long horse trainers, Yvonne and her husband Kim. It now includes their four children, Jaime, Jessica, Kassie and Kayla ("Hudi") all significantly involved in horning. It has also expanded to embrace their friends, colleagues and clients across the worlds that are similarly in love with horses.

Husband and business partner Kim Barteau was busy coaching and darting around attending to many farm and stable demands. Their young statuesque daughter Kayla, i.e., "Hudi" was skillfully coaching and encouraging an adult amateur student as we met the beautiful and confident Yvonne Barteau.

Instantly it was as if I knew her for years. She is warm but direct and totally comfortable in her skin and with her opinions. A sense of passion and honesty shines forth and that realism connects with people and horses.

Daughter Kassie is the most winningest Rider in the history of USDF Young Riders. She is now an established head trainer at Al Marah Stables in Clermont, FL but her spirit and memories are omnipresent at the Barteau farm.

Son Jaime was busy atop a gorgeous PRE Fuego youngster and casually handling all the balance and shenanigans of a baby as if he were in a rock'n chair watching his favorite movie! Such balance and confidence comes from years in the saddle and a talent in this family that is probably in the riding "gene!" Daughter Jessica is involved today in the production and technical side of their shows so it is truly a family affair!

costumes and the dancing dressage maneuvers they effortlessly delivered. Dazzled. Inspired. I have never been the same since....My dreams were manifested!

You can imagine how elated I was when I recently had an opportunity to visit the Barteau family farm at KYB Dressage about 50 miles west of Chicago, IL! What a rush to experience this amazing horse and family compound where the magic is shaped each and every day!

By Regina Sacha-Ujcz

Yvonne loves all her horses but there is one spectacular steed that has a special place in her heart forever. We were fortunate to be introduced to him in his palatial stall. The connection is seamless between Yvonne and her GP Mount, "Raymeister" a stallion among stallions! When she speaks of him Yvonne's eyes sparkle and the pride is effervescent. He is stunningly gorgeous and beyond talented but there is much more. He is a super star and won numerous titles throughout his ongoing dressage career. Numbered among his many awards were 17 Regional Championship wins, two-time USDF Horse of the Year and representative at the USA Young Rider World Cup. His success also transferred to the theatrical productions where he stars under the spotlights even after he was blinded in one eye by a freak accident. He is a happy, cherished, and versatile superstar. There is a oneness about them that transcends two different beings and makes them one. It is truly a spiritual connection.

Horses have been Yvonne's teachers. She has delved into personality theory and wrote the successful and very helpful book in 2007, Ride the Right Horse. It is an illuminating perspective of matching and understanding four basic horse personalities (and their combinations and variations) to understand and work harmoniously with each horse. It equips you to customize individualized training. This book is highly recommended as a valuable and effective tool toward better horse relationships and winning riding!

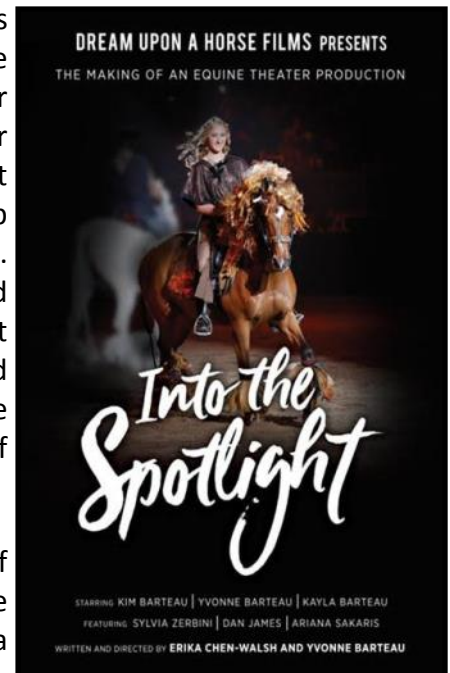

Yvonne is a dynamo. She can process and extrovert quickly and her teaching style is nothing short of magnificent. I had opportunity to ride with her for two days and could not believe how effortlessly she was able to address my training style needs, encourage, shape and provide detailed feedback to "fix" my issues. She quickly understood as a creative and intuitive person, that I am best trained by imagery. She was able to connect and improve my riding on one of her horses in major ways in short order!

Later the first day, I was able to preview a new feature-length documentary film venture of the Barteau family. INTO THE SPOTLIGHT! – A Journey of an Equine Theater Horse is a film about hope, rehabilitation and what we can do to protect at-risk horses. This film is for every horse person, whether they own horses or simply love them; it is about partnership and second chances. It is about trust and the love affair that humans have shared with horses since the beginning of human civilization.

Managing Editor of Trafalgar Square Books, Rebecca Didier commented,

"In this film there is an all-access pass to the enthralling world of equine theater. You meet the stars – human and horse – of one of the leading acts in North America, and learn how social responsibility motivates the trainers at KYB Dressage to give unwanted horses a second chance through a program that combines tricks and performance with classical dressage ideals. With plenty of gorgeous footage of horses at liberty as well as behind-the-scenes interviews and sneak peeks backstage, this film gets the viewer thinking about the connection between horses and humans, and all the truly amazing things they can accomplish together."

By Regina Sacha-Ujcz

It was truly enjoyable to preview this film alongside Yvonne Barteau and witness the behind-the-scenes material of horses particularly destined for equine theater. If that was not enough for day one, I was able to join Yvonne and her extended "barn family" for a culinary delight! Seems husband Kim not only trains and manages - he can cook! And by cook I mean amazingly so with fantastic and unique dishes.

Complete with wine and then sherry, the day and evening slipped into the wee hours with ample and delightful food, and bubbly conversation!

Day two was another wonderful lesson and the opportunity to watch Hudi ride a young horse and teach again. She is gifted beyond her years and has artistry in the way she rides and moves. It is small wonder that Hudi excels in the theatrical productions and exhibition rides the family produces for Equine Affair, BryerFest, Equitana, Madison Square Garden, The Today Show and more!

KYB Creates Freestyles that win more USDF Regional and National Awards than any other Freestyle design company in the United States. Comprehensive and special. That is KYB Dressage. It is about family. It is about relationships with horses that transcend owning and riding and is modeled for connections and growth.

I urge you to visit their website: KYBDressage.com and see what I experienced. Also, their website has a trailer of their movie and will give you a tantalizing taste of this must see documentary.

If interested, you can also obtain her famous book, Ride the Right Horse, or a recent book, The Dressage Horse Manifesto. YOU MUST however, treat yourself to this phenomenal movie documentary production INTO THE SPOTLIGHT! To purchase a great DVD gift for yourself or a friend contact Jessica Lawton (224) 522-8743 or horsefarmchef@aol.com.

Saying farewell to Yvonne and her family was hard to do. I didn't want to leave and felt as if I had known them for years. What a privilege and honor to see this amazing operation in action and meet these larger-than-life people first hand. I left with a sense that Yvonne had become a friend and that our paths would cross again. I trust that these cherished memories shared would be with me forever and that I was now a part of the greater KYB Dressage family united by our love of horses.

NODA Schooling Show Series Update

By Sally Burton

Thank you to everyone who participated in the schooling shows this season! We had record breaking attendance at every single show this season. We were able to add some fun perks like water, granola bars and carrots for our hard working horses, as well as raffle prizes and delicious food for our volunteers.

Earlier this fall, we sent out a survey to get some feedback on our season. Here are some of the results and questions we got from the survey. 36 members offered their thoughts on the survey we sent. In a nutshell here are the results:

- ◇ 47% showed at 2-3 schooling shows
- ◇ 42% preferred a stall on the day of the show
- ◇ 62% would travel an hour or less to a show
- ◇ 27% had no problem showing on turf/grass, 16% would not show on turf
- ◇ 77% liked the idea of a team competition at schooling shows
- ◇ 86% liked the carrots treat after showing, 75% liked the water and 61% liked the granola.
- ◇ 41% volunteered for one show and 27% did not volunteer at all.
- ◇ 76% liked the online sign up program called Sign Up Genius

And here is a sample of some of the questions we thought you'd be interested in knowing the answers.

Q: How do I avoid getting nagged to volunteer at a schooling show?

A: Volunteer! Without sounding sassy, we must have volunteers to run our shows, and without your help, we could not have shows.

Q: I don't understand why we all have to volunteer to get awards. We pay to be a part of the organization.

A: Running any show takes a lot of volunteer effort. We need people to scribe, ring steward, run the scores in, tabulate the results, run the office just to name a few- for each show! As part of the organization it is important to be involved, and volunteering helps everyone.

Q: Can we have a Jr Rider Clinic with school horses available?

A: We are working on this. The availability of school horses is always an issue.

Q: Can volunteers get a discount or free stall rental?

A: NODA does not control any stall issues, including fees and payments, at our schooling shows. So there is no way we could offer this incentive.

Q: Can we keep the Ride-a- Test before the July schooling show?

A: Yes! We are planning another Ride-a- test for July 8 - before the show on July 9.

Q: Can we please have a show close to Western PA and Ashtabula County for those of us who travel so far?

A: Yes! We have arranged to have our first show, May 21, at Lake Erie College!

Q: Why did the shows last so long this season?

A: We were overbooked this year! Our goal was to fill each show and we overachieved. We are going to remedy that for this season.

Thanks again to everyone for a super season! Look for an article in the next edition for our schedule and explanations of some changes and fun additions for the 2017 Schooling Show Season!
