Dee Liebenthal and Rens

Dear Members,
Can you believe it? We are already into July! We are really excited and busy getting ready for all we have going on this month, including Ride-a-Test and schooling show, July 9th and 10th, and our Recognized Shows, July 23rd and 24th, all at Chagrin Valley Farms.

This is our second year back at CVF for the Recognized Shows and we have some nice improvements in place. We have reserved more stalls so we can meet requests for tack stalls. We will have access to the large indoor arena which will allow lots of warm up and lunging space. We have added an additional porta-potty and lots more signs.

There is also a new wash area that will help a lot. We have a plan to do a better job with parking. We're going to ask those with two-horse trailers, once they've unloaded, to park in the front lot. This will leave the back parking lot for the larger trucks and trailers. We also have lots more volunteers to help with parking this year. Cars will have designated areas in both the back and the front parking areas. We also plan on sending out stall assignments and parking information prior to competitors arriving at the show.

Greetings from the President

If the shows are full, we will be starting early each morning to facilitate the Freestyle and Competitors' party on Saturday night and getting the judges to the airport on time Sunday.

We have fabulous support again this year from sponsors and advertisers. Big Dee's and Shade Tree Farm are supporting us at the Platinum level, Geauga Feed and Schneiders Saddlery at Gold level, Arielle Brodkey at the Silver level, and The Visiting Vet at the Bronze. We also have lots of advertisers and class sponsors. We asked our sponsors to support NODA and they have come through for us, so please support our sponsors by using their services and purchasing their goods.

Big Dee's Tack and Vet Supplies will be on the show grounds again this year. Please visit them for your personal riding or equine needs. We are also pleased to be hosting Sarah Krisher and her beautiful handmade jewelry.

The Schooling Show Committee has been working very hard getting ready for July 9th and 10th at Chagrin Valley Farms. Both the Ride-a-Test on Saturday and the schooling show on Sunday are completely full. Competitors are taking advantage of the opportunity to get some feedback on how to ride a better test before showing in Sunday's schooling show. Thank you all for supporting NODA and these two events.

In August our schooling show will be at South Farm. We are hoping that support will match the enthusiasm that's been shown for our schooling shows thus far this season. There will be a Team Competition at this show. We hope you will get your friends together to form a team and try to earn one of those great medals NODA is awarding to the first and second place teams. Entries open July 8th for the South Farm show.

Our volunteers have been great in stepping up to give of their time and effort for our schooling shows and recognized shows this year. Perhaps the convenience of signing up online has helped, but whatever it is it has been great! NODA really appreciates all of you for your support. Thank you!!!

One last reminder. NODA offers Adult Amateur and Jr/YR Scholarships. Application deadline is October 1st. Please visit the Noda website SCHOLARSHIPS page for details.

Thank you to everyone for supporting this organization! Thank you to our hard working board and committee members. There is absolutely no way we could do what we do without your help.

Happy Summer,
Dee Liebenthal, President

Member Spotlight: What's in a Name? Charles Maxwell Johns III

From NODA Membership Chair, Fran Cverna
Horses get an HID number directly from USDF, not through NODA, but I think of our horses as NODA members. E-mail membership@nodarider.org or text Fran Cverna (440-823-5965) and let me know how your horse got its name — official name or barn name! Dogs can be mascots too! New member Linda Johns has this to say about Charley:

Charles Maxwell Johns III was a hot mess when I bought him 4 years ago. Droopy bottom lip, crossed eyes, major sway back, knock kneed. He needed a saucy name to make up for his short straw on the genetics. His grandfather, Zippo Pine Bar (along with a million other horses) was his grandfather on both sides. The inbreeding did NOT do him any favors. Plus his last owner left him stall bound for a really long time (which I account for the sway), like a year or so. He is a completely different beast now. Sway is completely unnoticeable under saddle now due to the switch from Western Pleasure to Dressage. The "lights are on but no one is home" look has completely disappeared. He is a saucy, spoiled, lovable creature that I am totally head over heels for, despite the fact that I often threaten him with the Meat Wagon. (Have you noticed that I love telling his story?) My dog's name is Duchess Von Wheez'n Snort - she's a wiener dog from India, and I have three cats:

Ginger, MaryAnn and Mrs. Thurston Howell III. I am big into fun names!

§ NODA Professional Member Grant Opportunities § Professionals — Trainers, Instructors

Need help financially for continuing education in riding, training and theory of dressage and related subjects?

NODA's Professional Grant Funding can help make this possible.

50% of an event cost is reimbursable (up to $200). Symposiums, certification clinics, judging seminars and other educational seminars are all permissible (excludes riding clinics).

To apply, write a letter and mail it to the NODA Board c/o Mary Dana Prescott. Outline why you should receive a NODA Professional Grant, explaining what the education function is, and where it is to be held. State how you will share what you have learned with NODA and its members (lecture, clinic, or article). Be sure to provide the full cost of education function.

The only requirement is that you must be a "Professional" horseperson as defined by the current USEF rule book and be a member in good standing with NODA.

Schooling Show Update By Sally Burton

Thank you to everyone who has been supporting our schooling show series this year. We have had an amazing number of entries for our shows, with the Chagrin Valley Farms show topping out at 82 entries! Our online entry system seems to be very user friendly and popular, but as with anything new, we have some glitches to work out. We also may need to limit entries in the future, or hire a third judge, as our entries increase. It is a great problem to have!

Being new to the schooling show manager job has been a challenge but I am learning quickly and really appreciate your patience. We are excited to offer new programs this year such as an increase in Western Dressage offerings, more volunteer goodies, the TIP award (thoroughbred incentive program), extra treats for horses and competitors at the in gates, and team competitions- last chance at South Farm show. You may not know this but at every show we have someone pick a random number- if the number chosen is your number from the show, you win the raffle! So far we have given out saddle pads, gift cards to Big D's, horse books and at the South Farm show we will be raffling off two "free show" certificates!

Schooling shows should be fun and a great learning opportunity! If you want to join in the fun, please consider volunteering or joining the team. Jen Tulleners, our show secretary, is looking for someone to take over her job next year. Please let us know if you are interested so she can train you during the show season. If you have any ideas of how to make our shows more educational, fun and inviting, do not hesitate to email me at schoolingshow@nodarider.org. We'd love to hear from you.

No matter what your goal ... top competition, progressive training sessions, successful trail riding, developing a young athlete or a lifetime of good health, superior nutrition is a key factor in achieving that goal. The body needs nutrients to grow and develop, to progress to gain strength and stamina, and to heal and repair. The right nutritional program will help equine athletes improve performance and prevent body breakdown when engaging in athletic activities.

The Western Dressage Association[®] of America is excited to announce that the Western Dressage Federation of Texas will sponsor a Train the Trainers™ clinic in Magnolia, Texas on August 3rd & 4th, 2016. The purpose of the Train the Trainers™ program is to educate professionals who want to learn how to train, hold clinics and judge Western Dressage. A Certificate of Completion will be provided to all clinic graduates. We also list all TTT graduate trainers on our WDAA website. As professional trainers, you are an integral part of the success of the discipline of Western Dressage.

By participating in a Train the Trainers™ clinic, you will become a part of the foundation of the educational thrust of Western Dressage. If you are not a professional trainer, but would like to attend the Train The Trainers™ clinic, you will receive an Amateur Certificate of Completion. If you are not already a member of the WDAA, please join before reserving a spot. You may go to our website, <http://www.westerndressageassociation.org/register> to complete your membership application online.
