Greetings from the President

Barb Soukup & Hero

Hello NODA members, families, and friends,

I believe all our southern snow birds are slowly returning to Ohio and luckily, we saved some yucky weather for them! Has anyone found Spring yet? Maybe we should offer a reward! In any case, welcome back to those members returning.

Have you marked your calendars for the 2018 NODA Recognized Shows Weekend?

July 21 Dressage 2018 & July 22 Dressage 2018 Encore
Chagrin Valley Farms in Chagrin Falls, Ohio

The NODA Recognized Shows committee continue to plan and prepare for the shows. We will once again be counting on support from volunteers and sponsors to make this event an enjoyable experience for all.

Please check out the Sponsors & Advertising Opportunities Form in this newsletter. It will also be available on the RECOGNIZED SHOWS page of our award-winning website, www.NodaRider.org. There are several new options and opportunities that will appeal to new and continuing sponsors. We anticipate that these new options will also help members who may not have time to volunteer to earn their NODA bucks for NODA Year-End Awards.

Option 1: Donate or find someone else to donate $250 and receive your choice of one of the following "perks":

- ◆ 4 NODA bucks for year-end awards
- ◆ $20 NODA gift card to use toward any NODA event
- ◆ $20 gift card for Big Dee's or Schneiders

Option 2: Donate or find someone else to donate $125 and receive your choice of one of the following "perks":

- ◆ 2 NODA bucks to use for year-end awards
- ◆ $10 NODA gift card to use toward any NODA event
- ◆ $10 gift card for Big Dee's or Schneiders

These new opportunities have been added to the many levels of sponsorship and advertising, that we have offered in past years. We believe there is something for everyone. Please help us out this year! We are grateful to those who have helped us in the past and ask that you continue your generosity. The success of our Recognized Shows depends on NODA members like you.

The Schooling Shows committee has also been hard at work and has a great season set up and ready to roll. Our schooling shows are a great way to prepare for the recognized show season! Remember Sally, Niki and Kirsten can always use volunteers to make the shows run well. Sign up online to lend a hand using SignUpGenius for NODA Schooling Shows or contact Kirsten at SS-Volunteers@nodarider.org. Our first show is May 13th at Chagrin Valley Farms in Chagrin Falls, Ohio. Entries must be received by the Close Date, May 2nd.

Attention riders 25 years and younger, of all riding levels! Have you checked out the exciting June 9th and 10th Dressage4Kids Team Program Clinic opportunity with Olympian, Lendon Grey announced last month? It will be held at Chagrin Valley Farms. This clinic will provide an invaluable education opportunity for 8 to 12 lucky riders, and for everyone who audits. Visit www.Dressage4Kids.org, click on Programs, then Team Program for more information and the Rider Application. Remember auditors of all ages are encouraged and welcomed!

Ok, keep your thoughts positive and maybe, just maybe, Spring will arrive!

Thank you for being part of NODA!

Barb Soukup, NODA President

2018 NODA Recognized Shows Return to Chagrin Valley Farms

by Mosie Welch with Dee Liebenthal

Northern Ohio Dressage Association is pleased to announce that we will host our annual July USDF/USEF Recognized Shows Weekend at Chagrin Valley Farms (CVF) in Chagrin Falls, Ohio. The show dates are July 21 for NODA 2018 Dressage and July 22 for NODA 2018 Dressage Encore, so mark your calendars!

Chagrin Valley Farms is not new on the scene in northeast Ohio. It currently includes 75,000-square-feet under roof including two indoor riding arenas, four outdoor arenas, pastures, and trails. Purchased by the Schneider family in 2017, there have been exciting changes taking place at CVF.

The decision to remain at CVF did not come lightly as the NODA Recognized Shows Committee weighed concerns raised by competitors regarding the facility over the past few years. In the latter part of 2017 and early 2018, NODA completed extensive research on past shows, visited venues, and discussed competitor concerns and needs with venue representatives. The committee then surveyed competitors who competed over the past three years at our NODA Recognized shows, and the 2017 and 2018 combined membership to get a sense of the direction NODA should take for a safe and enjoyable recognized show for 2018 and beyond. The committee members spent many hours evaluating the survey results and the venues which enabled them to confidently select CVF for our 2018 recognized shows and beyond.

What can competitors and volunteers expect at Chagrin Valley Farms at our July 2018 Recognized Shows, and in the future? Upgraded footing quality, new stabling facilities, and more!

Footing quality was one of our top priorities considered for the welfare of our equine partners. After the Schneider family purchased the property, they evaluated the footing needs of the indoor and outdoor arenas. Based upon this evaluation, CVF has upgraded the footing of both indoor arenas, and they are currently upgrading the outdoor competition arenas by adding drainage and improved footing.

Stabling facilities were another important consideration. Competitors can look forward to the construction of a 200-stall barn for show and event stabling with amenities that will make CVF a pleasant and more comfortable weekend experience for the horses and competitors. Construction is expected to begin later this year on the Washington Street (south side) end of the main indoor arena. This new stall barn is anticipated to be ready for NODA's 2019 Recognized Shows weekend. Construction may sound scary to people on horses, but NODA's recognized show committee has been assured by CVF that the construction will not interfere in any way with our 2018 shows. When the new stall barn is complete, the current stabling barn will be developed into a larger second indoor arena.

A central location for our shows was a significant consideration. Chagrin Valley Farms provides easy access to the show grounds for those that are managing our shows weekend and for competitors. It also allows for NODA non-competing members and others to volunteer and support the show without incurring undo cost and travel.

NODA has been fortunate to offer Schooling Shows and our Schooling Show Championship at Chagrin Valley Farms for many years. Continuing to use CVF for our recognized shows encourages schooling show competitors to step up to recognized competition. Our Recognized Shows Committee truly believes that CVF has demonstrated in good faith, the ability to meet the needs of high quality competition and clinics in 2018 and beyond. It's a new day in northeast Ohio when a venue such as Chagrin Valley Farm upgrades and commits to our equestrian sport.

NODA would like to take this opportunity to thank our Recognized Shows Committee members for their hard work and deliberations in the selection of a venue we believe will be our home for many years to come. The Prize List for the NODA 2018 Dressage and NODA 2018 Dressage Encore Shows will be posted on our award-winning website, www.nodarider.org. See you at Chagrin Valley Farms in July!

Dear Valued NODA Member,

Every year Northern Ohio Dressage Association (NODA), comes to its members, sponsors, and advertisers to ask for help with our Recognized Shows, and it's that time again. The shows will be held on July 21st and 22nd at Chagrin Valley Farms. We are excited to return to there with the promise of new drainage and top-of-the-line footing in the main competition arena.

Our Recognized Shows Committee has been working hard, putting in many hours to prepare for these shows. We encourage you to volunteer online with the SignUpGenius.com link when available, and donate your time before, during, and/or after the shows. We cannot do any of this without our wonderful, dedicated volunteers.

Of course, we have another reason for writing. This year we expect our show costs to exceed those of past years. We have wonderful professional and commercial sponsors who are very generous to NODA, but we need more help from our individual members. Recognizing this need has led us to ideas that we hope will encourage more individual member support.

Our forms detailing sponsorship and support opportunities are enclosed. We realize that as individual members, most of us won't be interested in most of the perks that are listed. We don't want to make banners for ourselves or take out ads in the show program – we get it! So, we've come up with a couple of new perks that could help you as well as NODA.

NEW Sponsor Opportunities for 2018

- Donate $250.00 or find a $250.00 sponsor for the NODA shows this year, and select one (1) of the following:
  - ◆ 4 NODA Bucks that can be used towards your NODA Year-End Awards.
This takes care of your 4 hour volunteer requirement for one horse/rider combination.
  - ◆ $20 Gift Certificate that can be used toward any NODA-sponsored show entries, the NODA banquet, or a NODA educational event.
  - ◆ $20 Gift Card from Big Dee's Tack & Veterinary Supplies or Schneiders Saddlery
- Donate $125.00 or find a $125.00 sponsor for the NODA shows this year, and select one (1) of the following:
  - ◆ 2 NODA Bucks that can be used towards your NODA Year-End Awards.
This takes care of half of your 4 hour volunteer requirement for one horse/rider combination.
  - ◆ $10 Gift Certificate that can be used toward any NODA-sponsored show entries, the NODA banquet, or a NODA educational event.
  - ◆ $10 Gift Card from Big Dee's Tack & Veterinary Supplies or Schneiders Saddlery

These new opportunities have been added to the many levels of sponsorship and advertising, that we have offered in past years. We think there is something for everyone. Please help us out this year! We are grateful to those who have helped us in the past and ask that you continue your generosity. The success of our Recognized Shows depends on NODA members like you. Questions? ## NODA Historical Archive Fun

What does a skiing coach have in common with a dressage instructor? By Doris Van Heeckeren (NODA Newsletter May 1984)

First of all, he feels that nobody has the ability to teach anyone anything, until that one really wants to learn. Then he can have an influence. In most cases a person is not able to absorb knowledge in large doses, especially when it has to do with body control. This applies equally to an expert as well as an average person. One good way to learn is to observe and do things the same way as those who do better than you. Imitation is motoric memorization. Your body has to get accustomed to the proper use, and then practice it a lot. Furthermore your body ought to get a chance to prepare itself. The more you ski, the better you get and the more you can learn. That's how it is for experts, too.

THE BASICS IN DRESSAGE As Taught by Major Lindgren at the N.O.D.A. Clinic by Diane Maslar (NODA Newsletter May 1985)

Major Lindgren's Clinic at Red Raider on April 14 and 15 was a great success with many horses and riders benefiting from his instruction. His patience and good-humor helped make the Clinic enjoyable as well as informative. He stressed that three basic qualities - obedience, relaxation and suppleness - must be achieved before any advance work is attempted. The repetition of patterns should be used to relax and supple the horse.

Some simple patterns to use include the square, the 20 meter circle and the diagonal. Major Lindgren emphasized the Importance of riding 'through the corners' in the square pattern as opposed to riding in a circle. In riding patterns the rider must always be careful to choose the line to be ridden and not let the horse choose this line. The rider must ride forward, using her legs 'to design' the horse, imagining the horse has a waist. A common fault among riders is to pull on the inside rein—this allows the horse to escape with his shoulders to the outside, avoiding using of the inside hind leg. Instead the inside rein should be used as a guiding rein and the rider should rely on her weight and legs to turn the horse.

Major Lindgren introduced the 'pentagon theory', an exercise to correct some of the problems. On the circle, it involves counter bending the horse and slightly decreasing the circle with the outside leg, with the rider's weight well back and to the inside, to increase the use of the horse's inside hind leg. The horse should then be rewarded by riding it straighter, then the horse should like to flex to the inside. The rider can 'massage' the horse's neck by alternating the bend slightly from the outside to the inside. Another important exercise to practice is the leg-yield - either along the wall or along the diagonal.

Practicing these basic exercises with precision and patience can help develop a horse that is obedient, calm, and supple. We'll all be looking forward to riding with Major Lindgren next year.
