Greetings from the President

Barb Soukup & Hero

Hello NODA members, families, and dressage enthusiasts, The weather is finally starting to cooperate. Well, the temperatures and amount of daylight have improved but the rain storms are still a bit overdone!

The first 2018 NODA schooling show is in the books and I hope all the brave souls that completed their rides had a very successful outing. The first outing is always a challenge and the rain certainly added to the challenge! The Schooling Shows Committee and show volunteers did a super job and we thank them very much for their time and patience.

The May NODA Board Meeting was full of great ideas and new events being organized and scheduled. First on the list is a Scribing Clinic June 8th at my farm and taught by me. Second on the list, NODA is sponsoring the Dressage4kids Clinic being organized by Kate Poulin. It will be at Chagrin Valley Farms and feature Lendon Gray on June 9 & 10th. Both clinics will be fantastic and fun learning experiences.

Third on the list is a WILD ABOUT DRESSAGE PARTY for our Junior and Young Riders in the area. It will be a super fun night at the Lake Erie Nature & Science Center in Bay Village on June 16th with cool wildlife exhibits, fun games with amazing prizes, great music and a yummy potluck featuring a Taco Bar. It will be a terrific opportunity to meet other juniors and young riders who love dressage, and to meet your new NODA Junior/Young Rider Liaison, Christa Sandy! RSVP Required to Christa by June 9 to Jr-YR@nodarider.org and yes, parents are welcome to attend.

Learn more about these educational events (and more to come), in this newsletter, on the NODA website and NODA Facebook page! NODA is committed to providing education and value to our members so please take advantage of all the hard work and effort our team puts forth to bring you these opportunities.

The Recognized Shows Committee continues to organize and finalize plans for our July 21 & 22 Shows weekend. We have three top judges hired, and Chagrin Valley Farm is already preparing the outdoor show rings and warm-up area footing!

Calling all volunteers! These shows happen through the efforts of wonderful volunteers like yourself. Remember NODA members, friends, and family members are all welcome to volunteer. You can sign up online via SignUpGenius (link on the NODA website Recognized Shows page), or contact Karen Shirring at RS-Vol-Coord@nodarider.org. We need YOU!

Speaking of volunteers, Lake Erie College Equestrian Center (LEC) also needs our members to help at their June Dressage Derby weekend. It's important for all of us to support LEC with their efforts to host dressage shows in our area. We have fewer venues hosting shows that are close to home, so please consider helping them out and volunteer.

NODA is providing opportunities to win Big Dee's Gift Cards as to members who volunteer. LEC is also offering "Appreciation Incentives" to all volunteers. How awesome is that! Let's support our friends at Lake Erie College Equestrian Center and volunteer.

Thank you to all,
Barb Soukup,
NODA President

NODA Youth News

Greetings NODA Juniors and Young Riders!

My name is Christa Sandy and I look forward to meeting you and working with you as your new NODA Junior/Young Rider Liaison.

I am so excited about working with you, the youth of NODA. You can look forward to fun parties, clinics and more! Have you heard about the June 16 Wild About Dressage Party? Check out the flyer below for details. RSVP is required so sure RSVP by June 9 to Jr-YR@nodarider.org.

Working with youth and animals has always been my passion! I began my career as a special education teacher until taking time off to enjoy being a stay at home mom with my two kids, John and Maria. When both of my kids began school, I went back to work as an Education Program Specialist at Lake Erie Nature & Science Center. Here I had the opportunity to share wildlife and our natural world with students of all ages, and even lend a hand caring for our ambassador animals and rehabilitating injured local wildlife.

My introduction to horses began in 2011 when my daughter, Maria, began taking pony camps at Rocky River Stables at 6 years old. A year later my son, John, and I began taking lessons, and we soon realized we were all hooked on a new way of life at the barn.

At Rocky River Stables, I work with Valley Riding, Inc., in the office, teaching camps, and working with our therapeutic riding program.

Most of my spare time is spent at the barn enjoying trail riding my favorite Rocky Mountain mares, taking lessons, and enjoying time with my kids and their friends. Coordinating volunteers, grooming horses, strolling down the trail, watching lessons, setting jumps, and being a horse show mom are moments I treasure. I am always so proud of my own kids and all our barn youth and impressed with the maturity of kids "raised in a barn".

Now that you know a bit about me, it's time to get to know each of you. I hope that you will be in touch to provide suggestions, or to just share your horse or dressage experiences. Feel free to contact me anytime at Jr-YR@NodaRider.org.

Dressage

by Sally Burton (as published in "The Spirit of Bainbridge" Newspaper)

If you've read my column enough you know I am really "into" horses and riding: ridiculously so, in fact.

A childhood passion that has never left, regardless of how many times my dad said, "Horse people are crazy" or "This won't last". He refused to buy me a horse and honestly, I am so stubborn that the act of not getting my dream horse as a kid may have kept the dream alive my entire life.

So fast forward to now- at 55 years old- living my dream. I have the financial freedom (kids are gone!) to pursue riding the way I want. I still have my first horse, living a great life in a friend's backyard, happy at 32 years old, retired and living the dream. But he was the "starter horse", the one who taught me so much, frustrated me with his multiple health issues, and the horse I promised I would never sell. And if I am nothing else, I am a woman of my word. That horse will stay with my friend until the end of his days. But he couldn't have gotten me to my dream.

So, what is this elusive horse dream of mine? To finally, finally ride dressage correctly! So, you may think- you've been riding your entire life and have owned and leased horses before so why is your dream so far away still? I have had a thousand lessons in my lifetime, and with luck will take a thousand more. I have leased three horses and am on my fourth leased horse- the most talented horse yet- the horse that may take me where my dreams fly.

But first- what is Dressage? Technically, dressage means "training". Wikipedia describes it best. As an equestrian sport defined by the International Equestrian Federation, dressage is "the highest expression of horse training" where "horse and rider are expected to perform from memory a series of predetermined movements." If you watch the Olympics and see the musical freestyle events where horses "dance to music", that is dressage. But that dressage is far out of my reach, multi-million-dollar horses, professional athletes, and major sponsors for financial support.

My dressage is much more realistic. I want to ride really well, be totally in tune with my horse, and move up the levels to see how far we can get. For someone who is older, out of shape, a bit chunky, and only rides one horse a day (pro dressage riders' ride up to 8 horses a day or more) this is a huge goal. My trainer says it is attainable, but it is so much work! "

If you were to watch a lesson you would be amazed at how much detail and finesse is involved. In one minute of trotting I have to "wrap your legs around the horse, bump her off the inside rein, push her into the corner, get your right shoulder back, thumbs up, wiggle your inside ring finger, give with that rein but sit up straight while doing it, keep her activity level up, look where you are going, inside seat bone pushes to the outside rein, lengthen your leg, breathe, eyes up, ride every step".... Phew. And that is on a good day! Great riders do all of that without even being obvious- me, not so much.

There are days when I literally stop, throw my hands in the air, and say, "give me a minute to process all of this", and there are days when most of it comes together. And on those rare times when all the connections are made- it feels amazing and incredible... but then I forgot to ride because I am so in awe of the fact that we did it... and it all falls apart. But it gets easier every time, and just when you think you've mastered a skill, it is time to push on to the next. (Continued on Page 10)

Dear Valued NODA Member,

Every year Northern Ohio Dressage Association (NODA), comes to its members, sponsors, and advertisers to ask for help with our Recognized Shows, and it's that time again. The shows will be held on July 21st and 22nd at Chagrin Valley Farms. We are excited to return to there with the promise of new drainage and top-of-the-line footing in the main competition arena.

Our Recognized Shows Committee has been working hard, putting in many hours to prepare for these shows. We encourage you to volunteer online with the SignUpGenius.com link when available, and donate your time before, during, and/or after the shows. We cannot do any of this without our wonderful, dedicated volunteers.

Of course, we have another reason for writing. This year we expect our show costs to exceed those of past years. We have wonderful professional and commercial sponsors who are very generous to NODA, but we need more help from our individual members. Recognizing this need has led us to ideas that we hope will encourage more individual member support.

Our forms detailing sponsorship and support opportunities are enclosed. We realize that as individual members, most of us won't be interested in most of the perks that are listed. We don't want to make banners for ourselves or take out ads in the show program – we get it! So, we've come up with a couple of new perks that could help you as well as NODA.

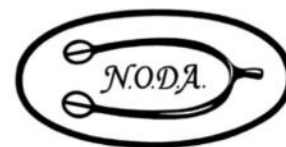

NEW Sponsor Opportunities for 2018

- Donate $250.00 or find a $250.00 sponsor for the NODA shows this year, and select one (1) of the following:
 - ◆ 4 NODA Bucks that can be used towards your NODA Year-End Awards.
This takes care of your 4 hour volunteer requirement for one horse/rider combination.
 - ◆ $20 Gift Certificate that can be used toward any NODA-sponsored show entries, the NODA banquet, or a NODA educational event.
 - ◆ $20 Gift Card from Big Dee's Tack & Veterinary Supplies or Schneiders Saddlery
- Donate $125.00 or find a $125.00 sponsor for the NODA shows this year, and select one (1) of the following:
 - ◆ 2 NODA Bucks that can be used towards your NODA Year-End Awards.
This takes care of half of your 4 hour volunteer requirement for one horse/rider combination.
 - ◆ $10 Gift Certificate that can be used toward any NODA-sponsored show entries, the NODA banquet, or a NODA educational event.
 - ◆ $10 Gift Card from Big Dee's Tack & Veterinary Supplies or Schneiders Saddlery

These new opportunities have been added to the many levels of sponsorship and advertising, that we have offered in past years. We think there is something for everyone. Please help us out this year! We are grateful to those who have helped us in the past and ask that you continue your generosity. The success of our Recognized Shows depends on NODA members like you. Questions? Please contact Christine Thompson at Sponsors@nodarider.org or Dee Liebenthal at Treasurer@nodarider.org.

Sincerely,
Barbara Soukup, President

Dressage

by Sally Burton (as published in "The Spirit of Bainbridge" Newspaper)

Every style of riding has its own set of criteria and techniques. When I was young I loved the thrill of jumping. I've watched horses work cows and am in awe of how athletic the horses and riders have to be. I've cheered on polo ponies and helped a friend with her eventers.

I have learned to drive ponies and have competed in a combined driving event as the navigator. I love to trail ride because I can enjoy being on my horse, in the woods, just relaxing. But for an intense, perfectionist, ride every step challenge, nothing beats dressage. You will never master it, can always improve, and the more you know the more you realize how very little you know! So why spend all that money and time for the elusive moment when it all comes together? My dad might have been on to something, "we are crazy!"

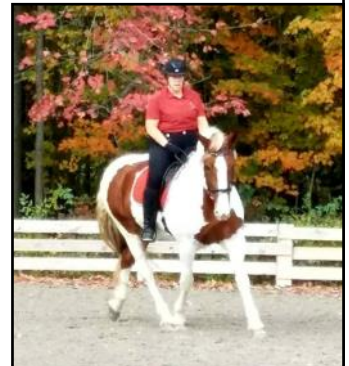

(Article reprinted with permission from April 13, 2018 "The Spirit of Bainbridge" Newspaper)

Update and Fast forward to May/June 2018

My most recent leased horse has been a true joy.
We have progressed and competed successfully together.

The time has come, however, for her to be a broodmare and so my search has begun for a new horse for dressage, trail riding, and to love!

If anyone knows of a half draft horse who is a decent mover, safe, sound, sturdy, sane, and available for purchase or riding, please contact me at SchoolingShow@nodarider.com.

MAY 13, 2018 NODA Schooling Show Report

As all May shows tend to be, this year's show at Chagrin Valley Farms was wet, raining, and did I say wet? We are so thankful for all of our very flexible competitors who put up with rain delay, schedule changes and "ride whenever you want outside" reminders! Special thanks to our fantastic judges, Amy Rothe-Heiter and Jennifer Roth, who were both gracious, accommodating and willing to do what it took to keep the show moving!

We could never accomplish all of the work on a show day without our amazing volunteers! Thanks to Saturday ring set up crew: Katie Delaney, BJ Harmann-Sasak, Kate McGinnis, Michele Thomas, Jill Winters led by Victoria Patterson-Pirko and Linda Toll. Thanks to Sunday show volunteers: Gina Ash, Cindy Bank, Danielle Bolm, Christina Fraser, Lauren Heba, Katie Holzheimer, Patty Keim, Kathy Kirchner, Stephanie Orellana, Lee Overbaugh, Victoria Patterson-Pirko, Sally Pla, Ellen Pridemore, Molly Reeves, Christa Sandy, Maria Sandy, Elizabeth Scalabrino and LaDonna Young. And finally, at the end of a super long thanks so much to Heidi Miller, and Victoria Patterson-Pirko who stayed to the end to tear down the ring! It is a super big job for three people... please consider staying to help!

Thank you to Chagrin Valley Farms, our NODA Board members led by President, Barb Soukup, and our wonderful schooling show staff, Sally Burton, Niki Sackman and Kirsten Thomas.

NODA Historical Archive Fun

From the June 1994 Newsletter

- 1994 was the first year NODA members were required to volunteer a minimum of 4 hours to be eligible for NODA year-end awards.
- Karen Eisenhower [Shirring] was looking for volunteers for the recognized show Dressage '94 (Karen has been doing this a long time!) and wrote the following poem.

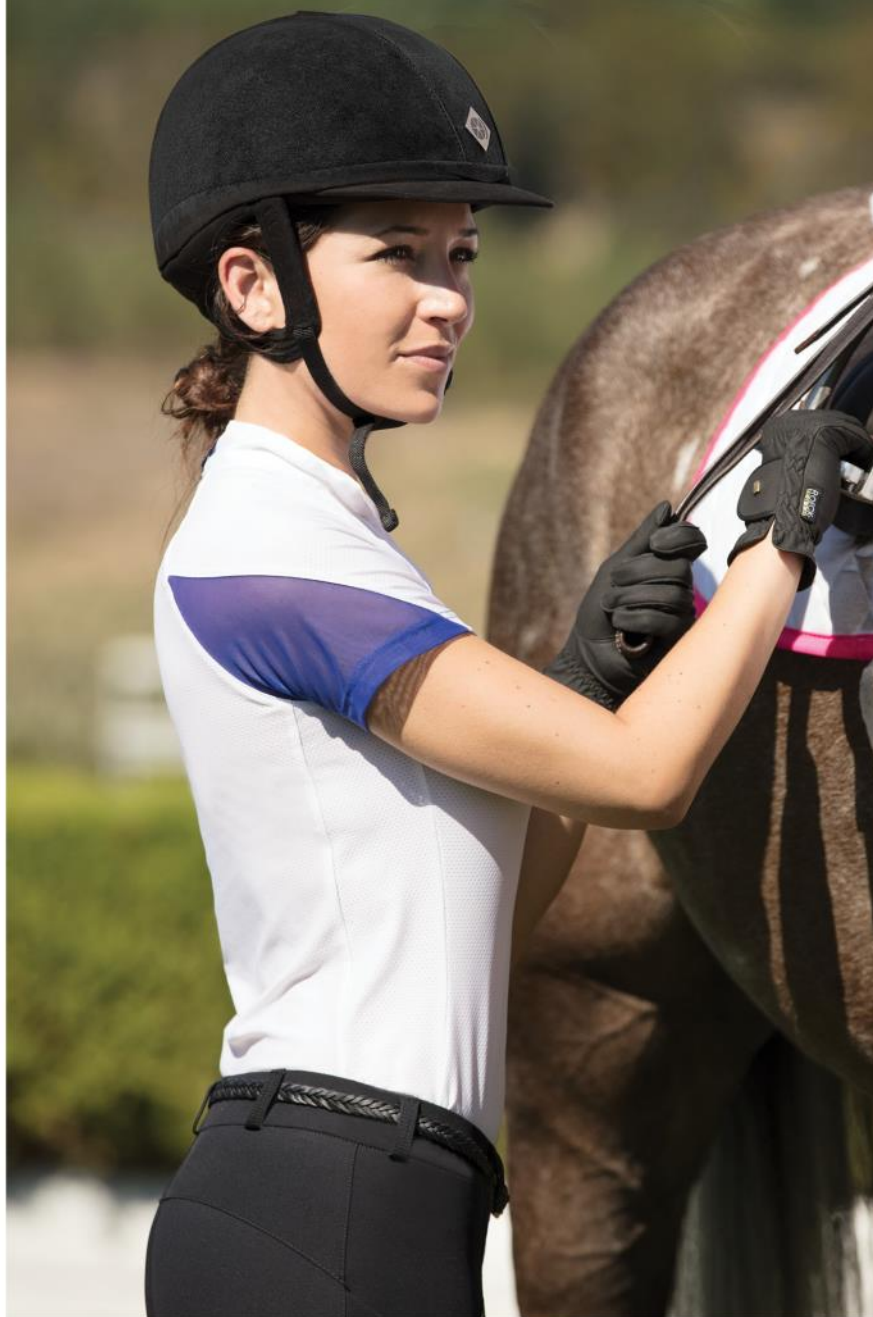

ODE TO VOLUNTEERS

A horse is not just a horse of course, whether you ride or just love the sport.
A horse should be seen in all his glory,
shown to the world without a worry.

Dressage '94 needs volunteers to give their time without any sneers.
We need your help to scribe and run to sign up and set up and keep it all fun.

Without volunteers, without a crew
NODA would be lost, the show would be doomed.
So, what do you say? Say "yes" in force, and show the world that a horse is more than horse, of course!

USDF News

USDF Launches the Youth Sport Horse Ambassador Program

Lexington, KY (May 17, 2018) – The United States Dressage Federation™ (USDF) is pleased to announce the launch of the USDF Youth Sport Horse Ambassador Program. This program is comprised of selected ambassadors, from participants ages 18-30, who have attended multiple events within USDF's Sport Horse Education Programs. Each ambassador will attend a USDF Sport Horse Education Program, and have opportunities to be mentored by program instructors. Ambassadors will also assist in increasing visibility of USDF Sport Horse Education Programs, through social media and other platforms.

For the program's inaugural year, the chosen ambassadors are:

- Noel Williams (Florida)
- Erin Bell-Altman (Texas)
- Caitlin Gallagher (Pennsylvania)

USDF Sport Horse Committee Co-Chairs Kristi Wysocki and Natalie DiBerardinis had this to say regarding the initiation of this new opportunity for the youth of dressage, "We are very excited to announce the USDF Sport Horse Youth Ambassador Program and to welcome Erin, Caitlin, and Noel as our first ambassadors. Building on the success of the USDF Youth/Young Adult Handler and Breeder Seminars, our Youth Ambassadors will help spread enthusiasm and promote interest in sport horse breeding, handling, and young horse training, among other youth and young adults. This year's ambassadors have already proven their commitment to sport horse programs, through their attendance at previous USDF Seminars and in their own career and internship choices. We feel their stories and energy will excite other young breeders and trainers that represent our future in this country."

To learn more about the 2018 ambassadors, be sure to read the July/August issue of USDF Connection. For more information about the USDF Youth Sport Horse Ambassador Program, contact the USDF office at sporthorse@usdf.org, or call (859) 971-2277.

Regional Championship Owner Membership Update

Effective for the 2018 regional championships, owners must have a USDF Participating or Business Membership and a USEF membership (Junior Active, Senior Active, Life, or Recorded Farm (with Active Farm Owner)). If the horse has more than one owner, at least one owner must have both active USEF membership and active USDF Participating or Business Membership. For a business or farm to be the valid owner under this requirement, it must be listed as an owner of the horse with both USEF and USDF.

NEW! USDF Regional Adult Amateur Equitation Program

The USDF Regional Adult Amateur Equitation Program recognizes adult amateurs competing in equitation and promotes correct seat, position, and use of the aids in dressage. An Adult Amateur Equitation Regional Final class will be held in conjunction with each of the nine USDF Regional Dressage Championships. Adult Amateurs wishing to qualify to compete in an Adult Amateur Equitation Regional Final may qualify to do so by earning a 70%, or higher in any Dressage Seat Equitation class (except walk-trot) or by qualifying for the Great American Insurance Group/USDF Regional Championships (freestyles exempt).
